Homecoming

The theme for Homecoming 1980 was a nostalgic one that mustered morale and lifted the hearts of the Gordon men. Starting day was Monday, which noted 50's Day. Optionally the students honored that period of time by dressing accordingly. Tuesday posed a complete turn around since it was Dress-up day, and Gordon students donned there best clothes to make a lasting impression. Wednesday furnished the student body with an outlet for their crazy actions, for it was Crazy Hat and Tie Day. In keeping with the Homecoming theme, Tuesday was Nostalgia Day. Students came to school made up as their favorite people of all time. On Friday, which fittingly was Orange Day, the Gordon community held a pep-rally which would set the pace for Sunday's football game. That evening, The Homecoming Dance was held, where Charmane Plaiss was nominated queen. Finally, on that Sunday, the Rams of Gordon beat rival Weber in the Homecoming Game 15-0 to finish with a flurry one of the best weeks at Gordon.

The Gordon Tech Band strikes up the fight song.

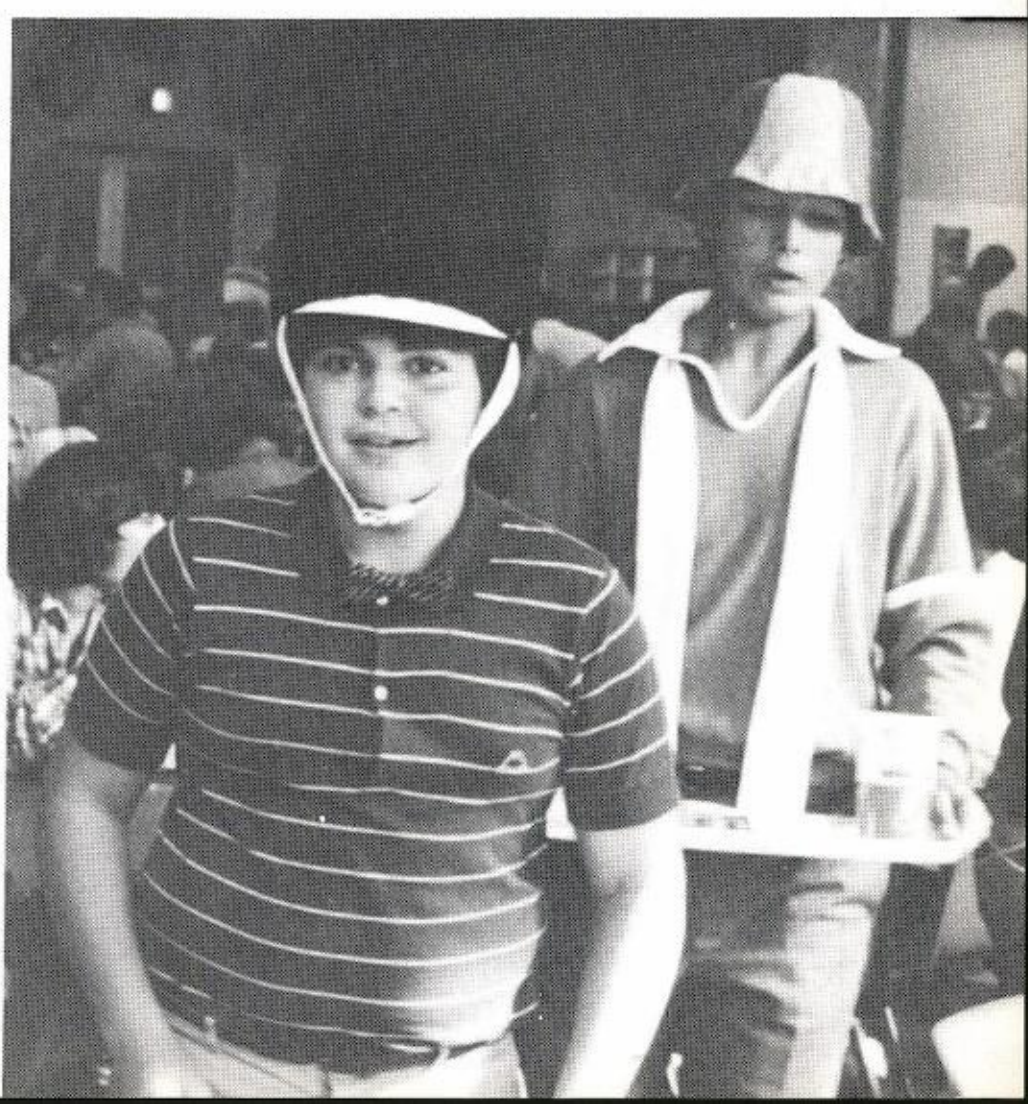

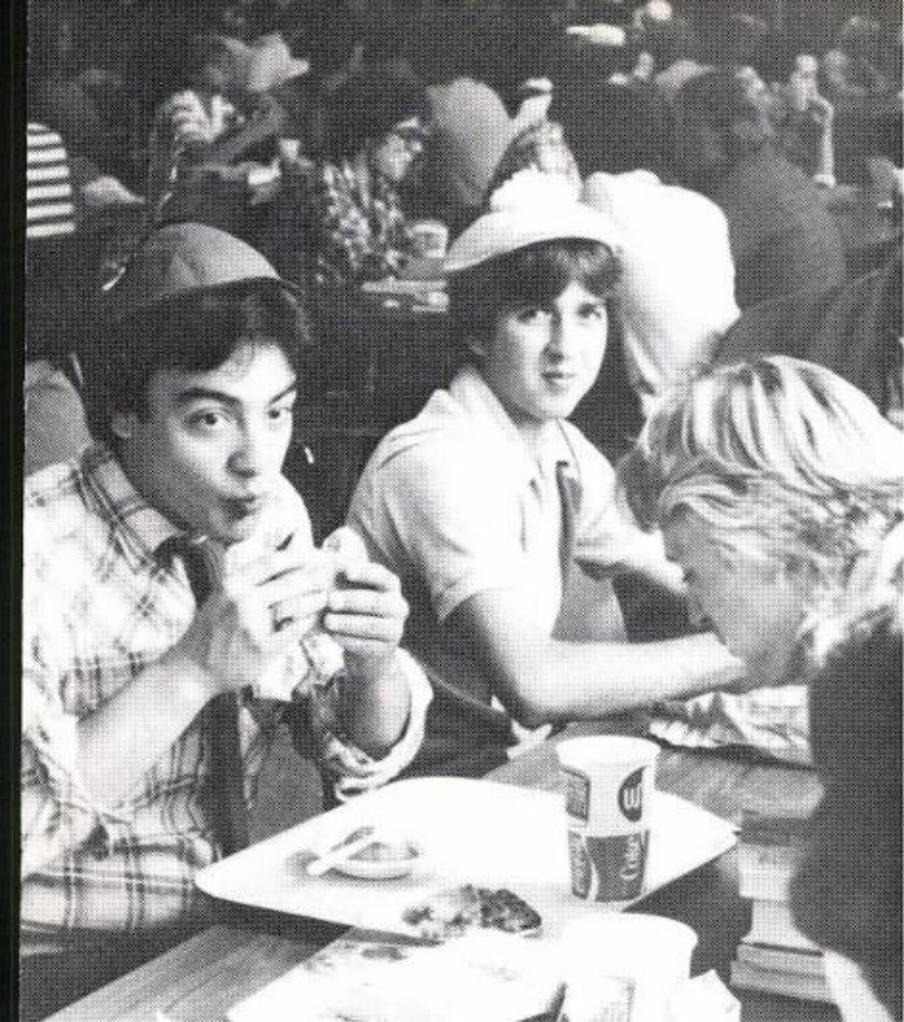

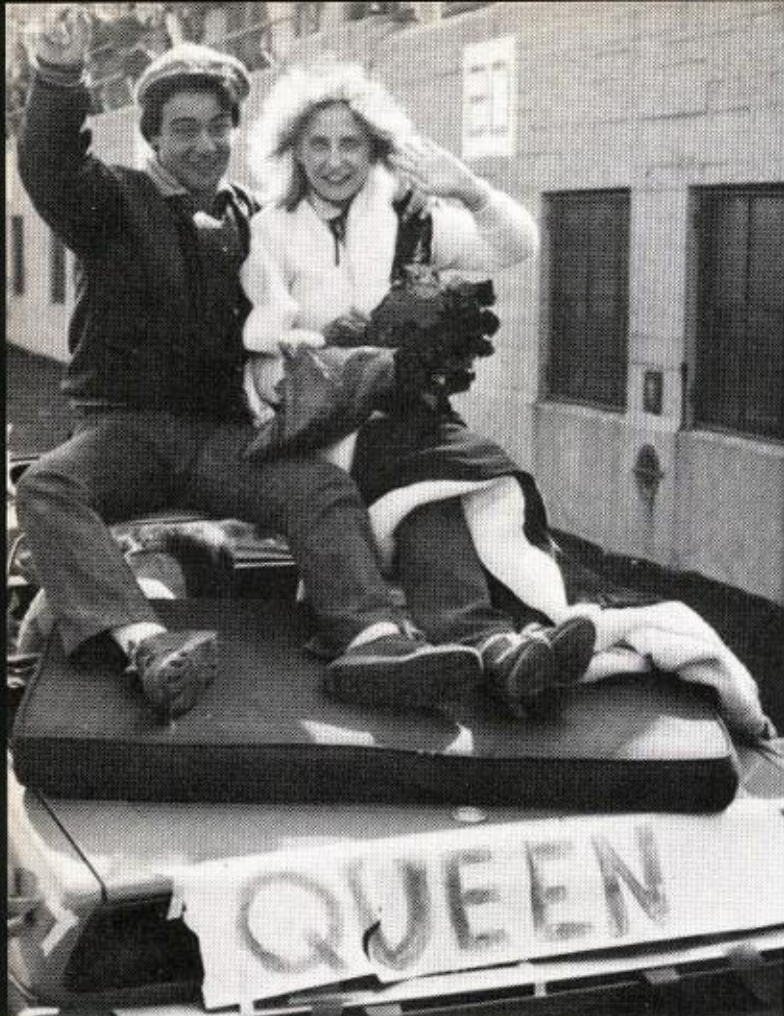

Tender moments on the dance floor.

The students decorated cars and floats in the parking lot.

The runner-up for the Prom Queen took her place in the Homecoming parade.

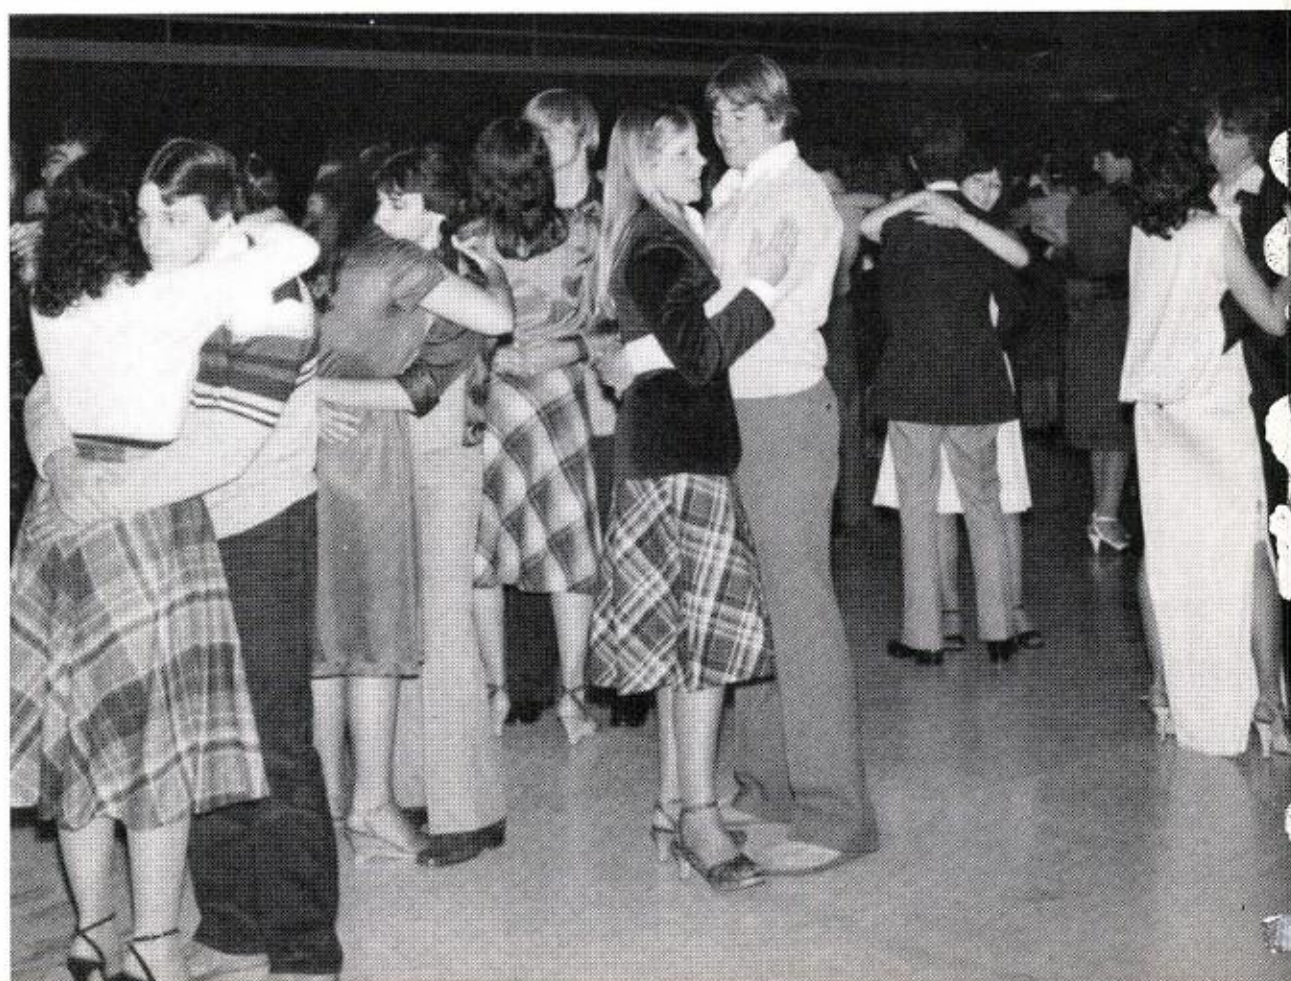

The band played until evryone was ready to go home.

Students huddled in groups and posed for pictures whenever the cameraman was near.

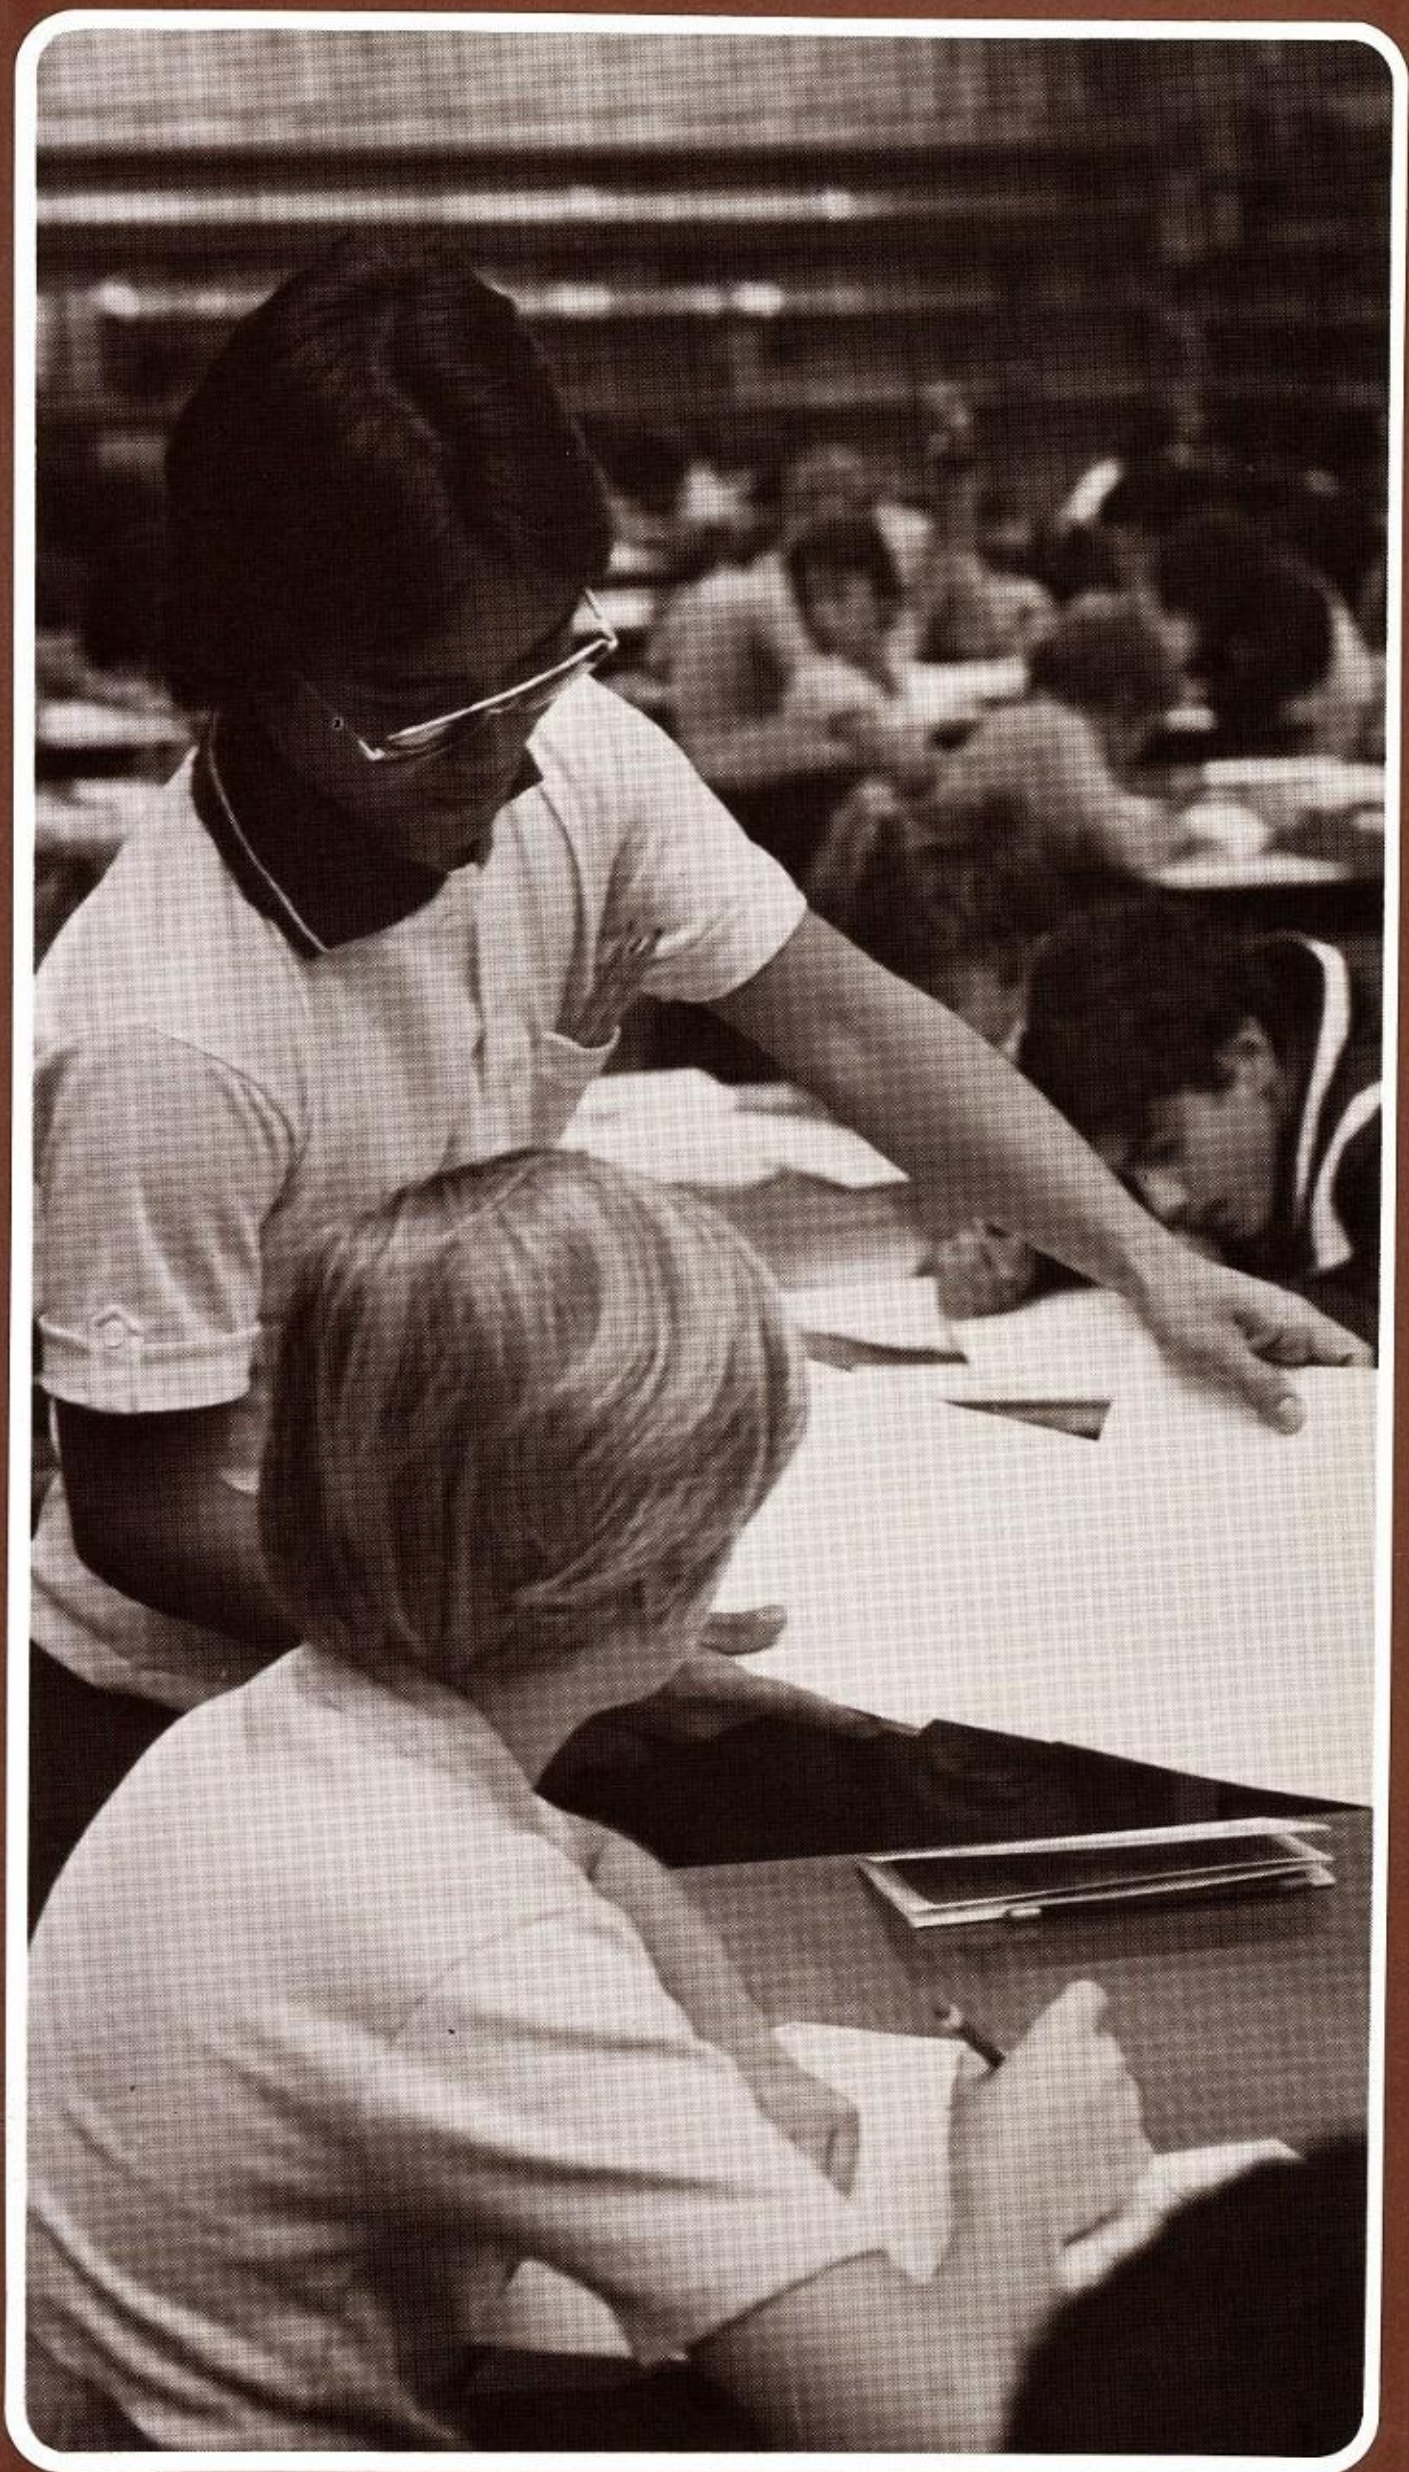

Everyone kept their fancy free and had a great time.

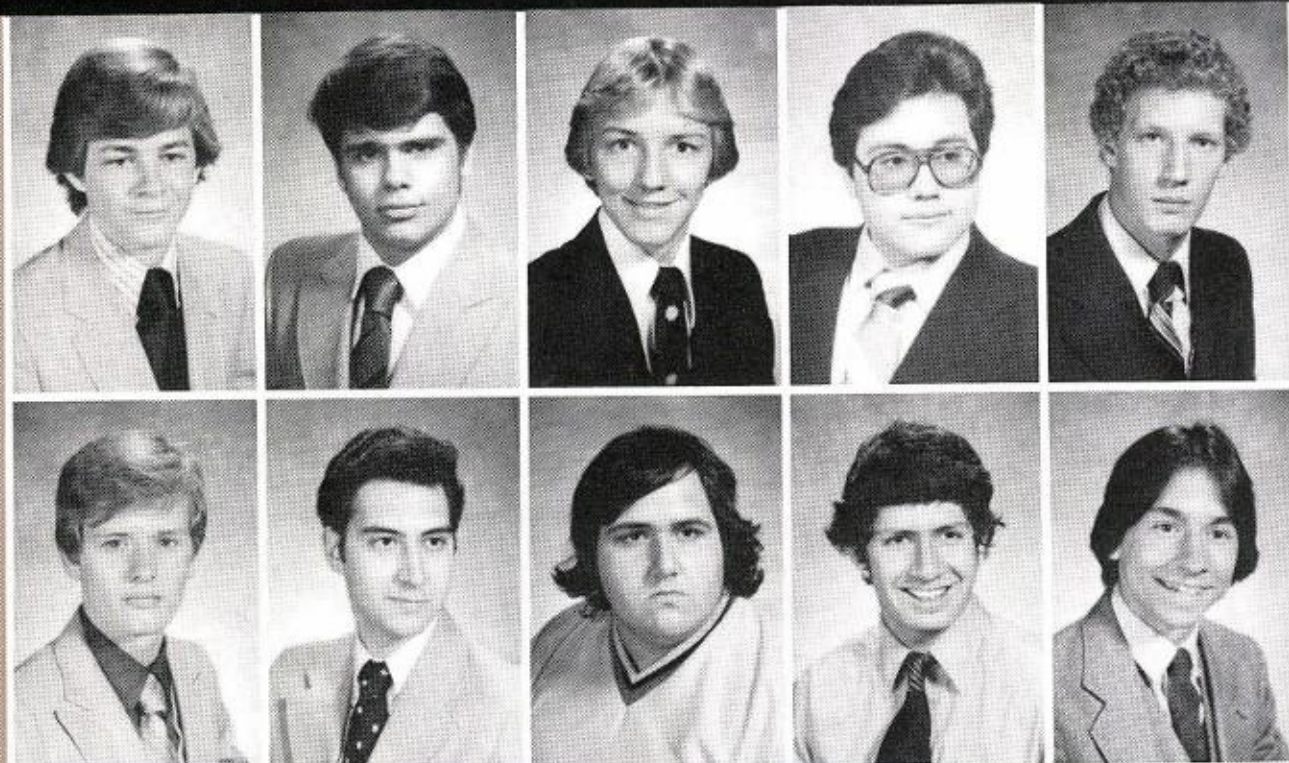

Football players Dietz and Lyons enjoy some time on the dance floor.

Students in Architectural Drafting get to use professional, sophisticated drafting equipment during class time.

Lest they be forgotten . . .

The seniors whose pictures appear on the next three pages never managed to have their senior portraits taken. The TECH-Log staff did not want to leave them out of our history of the 1980-1981 school year.

We searched our files for the most recent photographs of the students for inclusion: most are junior pictures, a few are sophomore shots, and one is a freshman photograph (can you find him?).

The six people whose names are listed on page 44 have eluded the school photographer for four years. We regret that we have not been able to include them.

The following is an excerpt from a TECH-Log interview with Head Football Coach Tom Winiacki at the conclusion of the season. The 6A State Football Championship came to Gordon for the first in Gordon's history.

I don't think that we ever really thought about the championship until we won the Catholic League North and qualified for the state. Once we qualified for the state, we thought that we could win it all. The reason is that being a product of (and now coaching in) the Catholic League, I think it's one of the toughest leagues, top to bottom, throughout the country. Because of that, it is difficult to come out of the league and into the playoffs. Once we were able to beat Loyola and both myself and my staff scouted St. Rita, we felt that we could handle Rita. We felt that we had a great defense and that our defense could shut them down. We felt that we could move the ball on them and win that ball game which projected us into the state playoffs and into the championship. There was never any doubt in my mind or my staff's minds that we would win the state championship once we got in. Some people had us picked the fourth best in the division; some people had us and to be moved to a position where he was going to possibly be in the shadow of Pat McAvoy, who was going to be an outstanding football player, would be tough. But Todd took that challenge and he moved over.

The other was Bill Stuckey—from defensive end to defensive tackle. He is the kind of guy who after every game, you would see coming off the field, his shirt pulled out, sweat and dirt all over his body, and he just would give you everything he had.

So with those changes we were already prepared for the season. The other thing that happened this year, is picked even lower than that. But I don't think that anyone had us picked sixth, but again they did have us picked down toward the bottom of the division.

As far as personnel is concerned, there are many people who thought that we were a year away since this year's juniors were undefeated as freshman and only lost two games after we moved their outstanding quarterback, Dave Dietz up to Varsity. I think the key to the championship was the leadership of the seniors in a very genuine way. In all my years of coaching, it was probably the best year I've ever had for seniors doing what they say they're going to do. They were very goal oriented and they knew what they wanted to do. That was one of the keys, their leadership, and one of the other keys was the utilization of talent that these boys had. Because of our Rugby program, we were able to observe three individuals that really looked outstanding.

The junior, LeRoy Foster, was just outstanding in Rugby. He indicated that he had the courage and the ability to run.

Todd Nelmark, who was a defensive tackle, also showed the ability to run during Rugby. We were at that time, looking for another line-backer, and the natural move was to take Todd. It was a tough move for Todd because he was a second team all-Catholic tackle that we were involved in a park district seven on seven league; a tough football league during the summer. The nice thing about that is that it brought us closer together. This seven on seven allowed us to participate together and grow as a team.

The Catholic League is basically noted for its defense, and I think that anyone whose been involved in coaching long enough, at any level, knows that you don't want to lose a game before you win. In order to do that, you must eliminate errors and you must play tough defense. Offenses are mostly built around one or two individuals, while the defense can be built around a team concept. I think that leads to the idea that you should emphasize defense, because again, if you just emphasize your offense, you can run into trouble. There is no question that the defense has kept us in a lot of games. At the same time, if you look at our statistics, even though our defense played superbly, our offense, in most of the games, ran ten or more offensive plays more than the opponent. That means that we were on the field as an offensive team longer. Therefore, our defense had a longer time to rest.

Football like any other sport, is a total concept. Your kicking game has to be involved, and the one nice thing about Gordon is that myself, as the head coach, and my four great assistants, and what I would call "one super assistant", for the sake of a better title, John Hoerster. John took the defense and I took the offense, but we had the kind of relationship where we both knew exactly what we were trying to accomplish. Jerry Jasinski and Bob Carskie and John Gruber rounded out the varsity staff and it was really a well developed staff. Bob Carskie added a dimension that we knew he'd add, and that was his enthusiasm for the game.

Sometimes both John and I take the game too seriously, even though the longer I stay in coaching, I try not to make it a life or death situation. It's still a game and we still have to enjoy what we're doing.

The season started back in March when the members of the 1980 Kickin' Rams got together to begin practicing indoors. The team held a very optimistic outlook. Eight starters would be returning from last year's team, and they were to be joined by the members of a championship sophomore team. Neophyte Coach Birch had a year's experience with the Gordon Tech team under his hat.

In their first two games the Kickers came out on the losing side, failing to even score a goal. Though the second game against Forest View was one of the best high school games ever played, the Kickers knew they needed more practice.

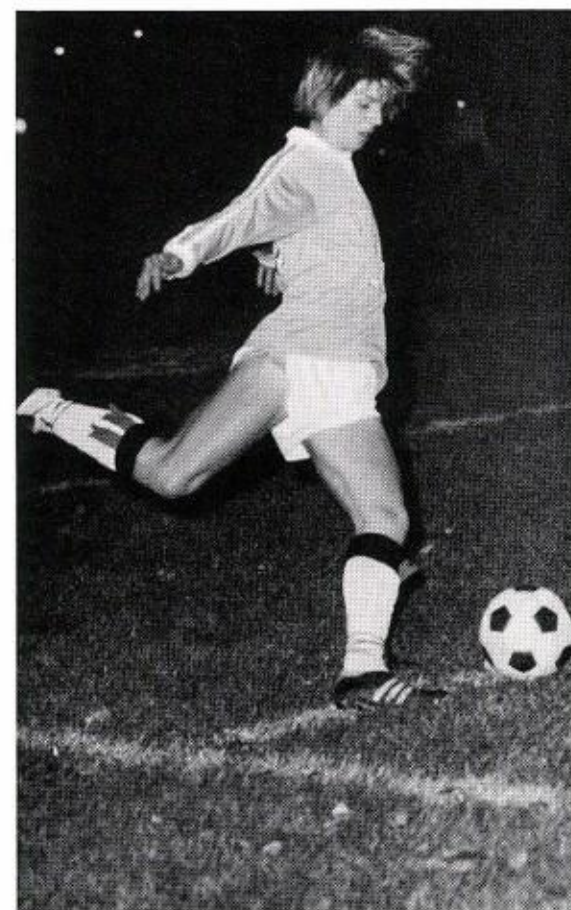

Although they were defeated in these games, it wasn't a total loss. Coach Birch was able to find the best positions for the players, and the players got valuable playing time against tough competition. The players were learning to play each together.

The Kickers exhibited their newly developed unity by coming out victorious in their next five games. One of these wins was against a tough Fenwick squad which was highly ranked in the state.

Another victory game came in the Catholic League opener against Hales. This year the Catholic League held the toughest competition ever. There would be no easy victories to be had.

The Kickers were going along undefeated in the Catholic League and were looking forward to playing Loyola for the championship. They overlooked DeLaSalle and became the victim of a 1-0 upset. In order to win the championship they had to win all of their remaining Catholic League games. They accomplished this feat and the stage was set for the Loyola confrontation and the title. The Kickers dominated the game but St. Ignatius of Loyola kept the ball out of Loyola's net and the game ended in a tie. This resulted in Loyola and Gordon being League co-champions. It was the Kicker's sixth straight Catholic League championship.

The Kickers felt confident as they entered the sub-sectionals. However, their confidence soon turned to worry for it took a dramatic shootout in a two day confrontation to beat St. Ignatius, and two penalty kicks, one in overtime, to beat Francis Parker.

This close encounter at the end of the season woke the team up for the sectionals. The Kickers were ranked last out of the four teams in the section. This gave them an even greater incentive to win.

The Kickers played the best ball they had played all year and made two, dramatic, come-from-behind victories against Maine South and Oak Park to win the Sectional Championship. As sectional champs they earned a bid to the state finals as a member of the "elite 8".

The Kickers were looking forward to challenging Granite City for the title, but once again overlooked another team. This time it was Bowen, who also had thoughts of beating Granite City. The Kickers missed early opportunities to score, and the first three quarters went scoreless. Then, late in the fourth quarter, Bowen squeezed in the goal which gave them the victory.

The Gordon Tech Runnin' Rams officially began their season at the Main West Central Meet. The team, however, had begun pre-season running three months prior to the Main West Meet. The dedicated runners had begun to run on their own even earlier in the summer.

The Cross-Country team also went on a number of outings during the summer months. We helped organize and participated in the races held by the RIIS Park Striders Club which is run by Coach Martorano. We also took a trip to Bagley, Wisconsin where some of our more experienced runners were challenged by the infamous Wyalusing ten mile run, and boy were they sore!

Once the Harriers got into the pre-season running, the fun and games slowed down to a minimum, the paces got faster, and the muscles got sorer.

The only thing that kept us awake in the mornings was Coach Martorano's old saying, "When you get up in the morning, say to yourself, 'it's great to be alive!'" What we really looked forward to was the cool, refreshing feeling of jumping in California's swimming pool after practice!

Pre-season also meant trips to good old Mt. Trashmore in Evanston. You'd know why they called a dirt-covered pile of trash Mt. Trashmore when you looked at its height, or better yet, tried to run up and down it. Once a week we got the pleasure of running up and down the mountain and then running six miles back to school for a warm down. The hard work payed off for the Harriers though because little did we know that we were headed for a winning season.

Our first race was held at Main

West. The meet would be one of our hardest of the season but we ran tough and out of twenty teams entered, the GT Harriers placed a hard earned sixth. On the three mile course, we had seven guys running, however, only the top five finishers on each team count in totaling up the scores. Here we were led by Paul Peters in tenth place, followed by Terry Huebner in thirty-ninth. For our third, fourth, and fifth places, we had Norman Aranda finishing with forty-ninth, John Barsella taking fifty-first, and Tom Taylor wrapping it up fifth with fifty-fifth place. The Harriers were on their way and nothing could stop them.

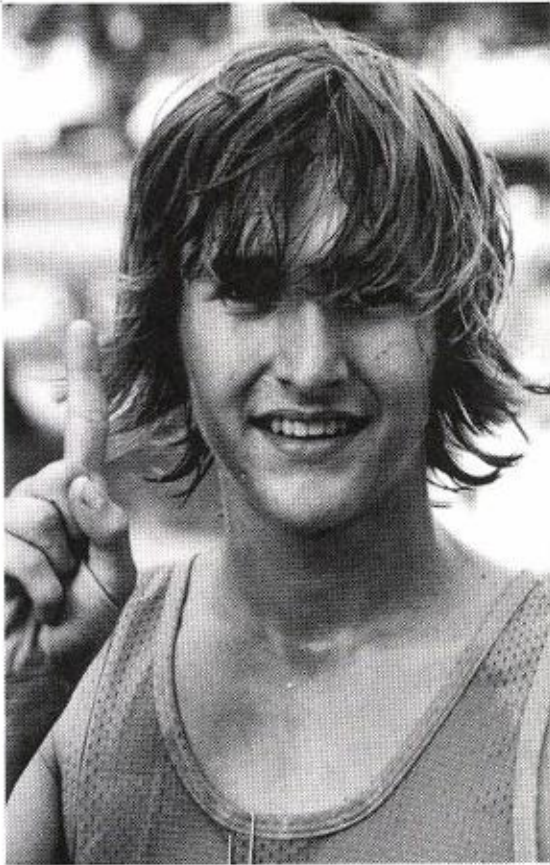

Four dual meets lay ahead for the Harriers but there weren't any doubts in the Seniors' minds, about who would win them. So far the Seniors had a record of thirty-four wins and zero losses stacked in a neat bundle.

The victories continued on for the Varsity at the Gordon Tech Invitational. We took first place and all five men came in the top seventeen places, giving us a total amount of fifty-four points. More great victories at the Gordon Invitational came with performances on the Novice level and the Freshman level. On the Novice level Bill Fiedler ran away with the first place title and what a victory it was. The baby Harriers also placed first.

We went into the Oak Park Invitational, with our heads in the clouds, and Gordon placed tenth out of ten teams! Coach Martorano said it best when he said, "Did Gordon Tech show up at the Oak Park Invitational this year?"

At least Oak Park got us back on track. The reason being that at our next race, Crete-Monee Invitational (the largest Cross-Country meet in the United States) the Running Rams finished in eighteenth place out of seventy teams. Four of our seven runners ran their best times and did they feel great!

We had one more meet before the big time. Again we came through with a great victory. Out of the eighteen teams at the Rich Central Olympian meet, the Runnin' Rams placed third and were on their way to Catholic League. The only problem, though, was that again we over-estimated our abilities and we took a poor third place. The only Runner who really gave it his all was Paul Peters. Paul placed third and earned the title of All-Catholic.

After that disappointing race, we headed out to Districts. This time though, we were going to let them know we were from Gordon Tech. As it turned out, we did let them know who we were. We came in second place. The only team that beat us was from York High School. Again we were on our way but this time it was to the IHSA Sectionals.

The Sectional race was to be the end of the season for the team as they finished in eleventh place. The team was lead by Paul Peters with his excellent twenty-first place finish and a time of 15:08. Peters dove into the finish

The season in general was a successful one. The dual meet record was 8 and 0, and for the class of 81, a 34-0 unprecedented dual meet record over their four years. Paul Peters was voted the MVP and John Barsella received the Coaches' Award. The future looks bright with only three of the top seven graduating.

FALL ATHLETIC BANQUET

NOVEMBER 30, 1980

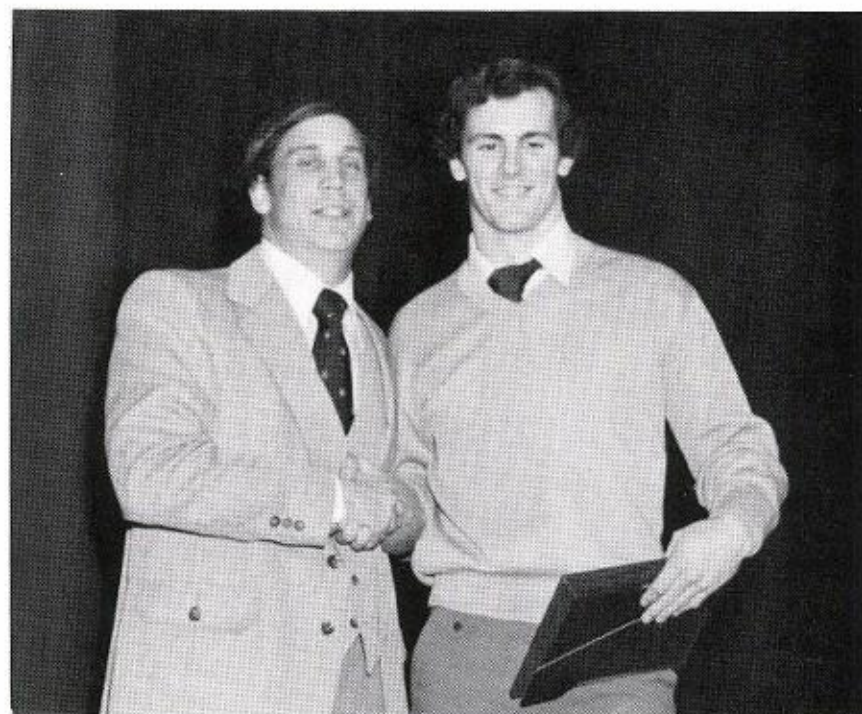

The Fall Sports Athletic Banquet was held in November to acknowledge the accomplishments of the Football, Soccer, and Cross-Country teams.

The evening began as Mr. Robert Ociepka, Toastmaster for the evening's events, introduced Fr. Ron Dernick, the Football Moderator, who then gave the Invocation.

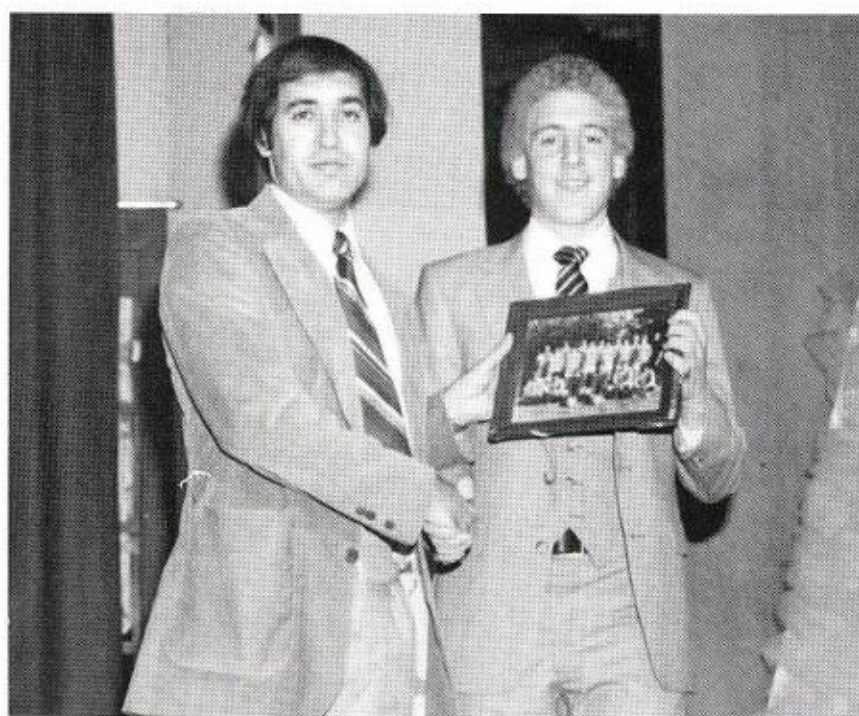

The first sport honored was the receiptant of the state title, the Football team. Head Football Coach Tom Winiecki gave out the awards first. He then introduced the rest of his staff, who gave out the rest of the special awards.

Next, Head Soccer Coach Mr. Phil Birch was introduced and he gave out the awards to the deserving members of the Sectional Champ Soccer Team. The last sport honored was the Cross-Country team. Head Coach Mike Martorano and Assistant Coach Ed Schalek gave out the Cross-Country awards. Senior Paul Peters received the MVP award.

The last thing on the program before the teams separated into their own rooms, was the handing out of the Crosses to the Senior's mothers by Fr. Mitrenga, and the Benediction.

SENIOR PROM

The Senior Prom Committee was right on top of things this year, as everytbing was done well and on time. Fr. Glab organized the prom, and was helped by Co-Chairmen Michael Coddington and Glen Szeszol. Finally, on May 8, the prom was on its way at Marriot Lincolnshire in the Grand Ballroom.

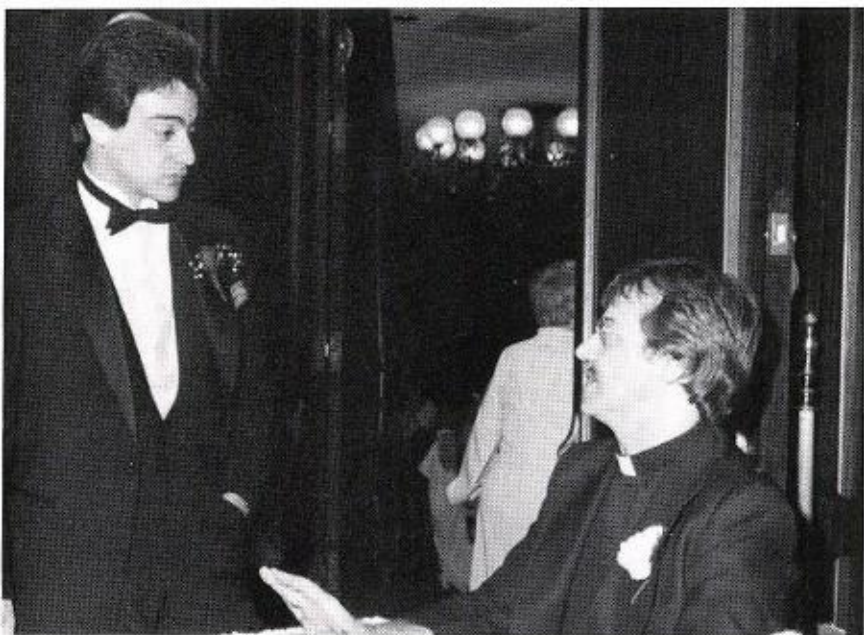

At 7:00 p.m., couples began arriving and soon the place was packed. When everyone was seated for dinner, Frankie Masters and his orchestra began to play. For dinner, the seniors enjoyed sirloin steak and for dessert had "Mile High Pie".

At the end of the meal, Father Glab announced the prom queen and her court. Nancy Denigan was pretty happy when she was announced Gordon Tech's 1981 Prom Queen.

For the rest of the night, Frankie Masters and his orchestra took turns playing with Randal Road, who played the Prom's theme song "We've Only Just Begun". As the prom closed, everybody left feeling pretty good.

COMMENCEMENT

The Commencement Exercises took place on May 30, 1981 at the Arie Crown Theatre. Joseph A. McMahon gave the valedictory speech, followed by Father Mitrenga's address to the graduates. The Commencement speaker was Rev. Mark Link of Loyola University of Chicago. Rev. Link's speech dealt with friendship and how important it is to us.

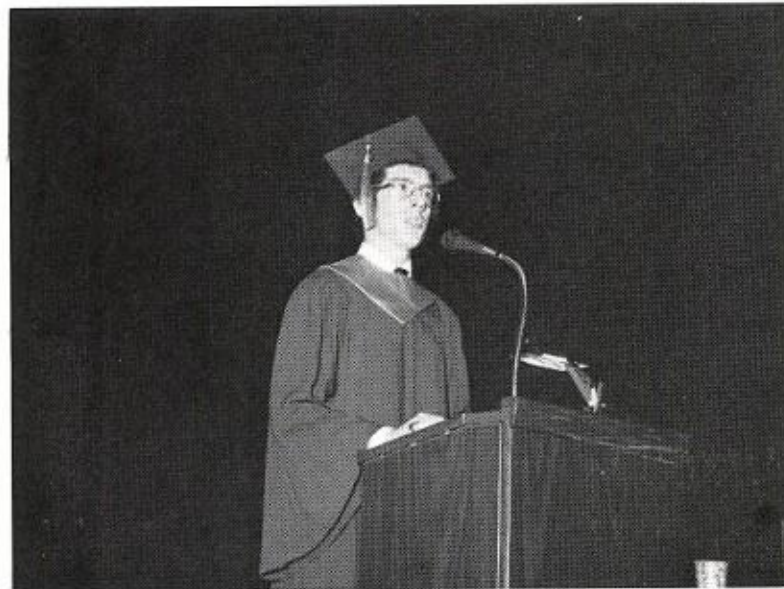

After the address, the graduates received their diplomas from Father Mitrenga, and their Alumni pins from Father Novak. When all the graduates had received their diplomas, awards were passed out for perfect attendance, high academic standing, and for proficiency in various areas. Father Rog then led those assembled in the Resurrectionist Prayer. Music was provided by the Gordon Tech Concert Band.

On April 2, 1981, 450 juniors received their class rings at a ceremony in the gym. At the ceremony students were seated with their parents in homeroom groupings.

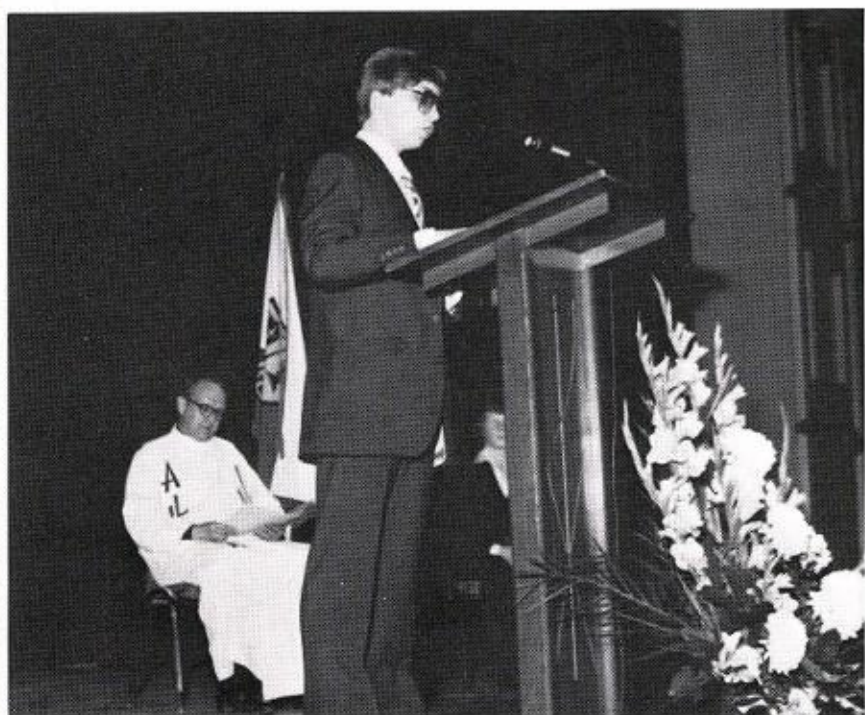

The rings were blessed in a brief ceremony which included Biblical readings by members of the Junior class. Following Fr. Mitrenga's message on the importance and significance of the ring, the blessed rings were distributed by faculty members. The rings were given to the student's parents who then presented them to their sons. Everyone was invited to the cafeteria for refreshments at the conclusion of the night.

The following evening the annual Ring Dance was held at Antoine's Banquet Hall. The theme was "First Time" and the music was provided by Chariot.

During the dance Fr. Glab officiated at the ceremony in which the Ring Dance Queen and her court were announced. Paris Whitlock of Whitney Young High School was named Queen; she was escorted to the dance to Bill Senne.

On a hot and muggy July evening, the sound of bouncing basketballs rang throughout the gym at Oak Park-River Forest High School. The returning Ram Cagers breezed through lay-up lines in preparation for their contest with Proviso East High School. Although the regular season was over 4 months away, the basketball program was in full swing.

The team didn't look bad, but it was a totally different team from a year ago. Our experience was inside this year with returning starters Scott Petway, Darryl Smith, and Ed Wayda. Adding to this inside strength would be seniors Al Gienko, Dennis Barker, and Junior John Masello.

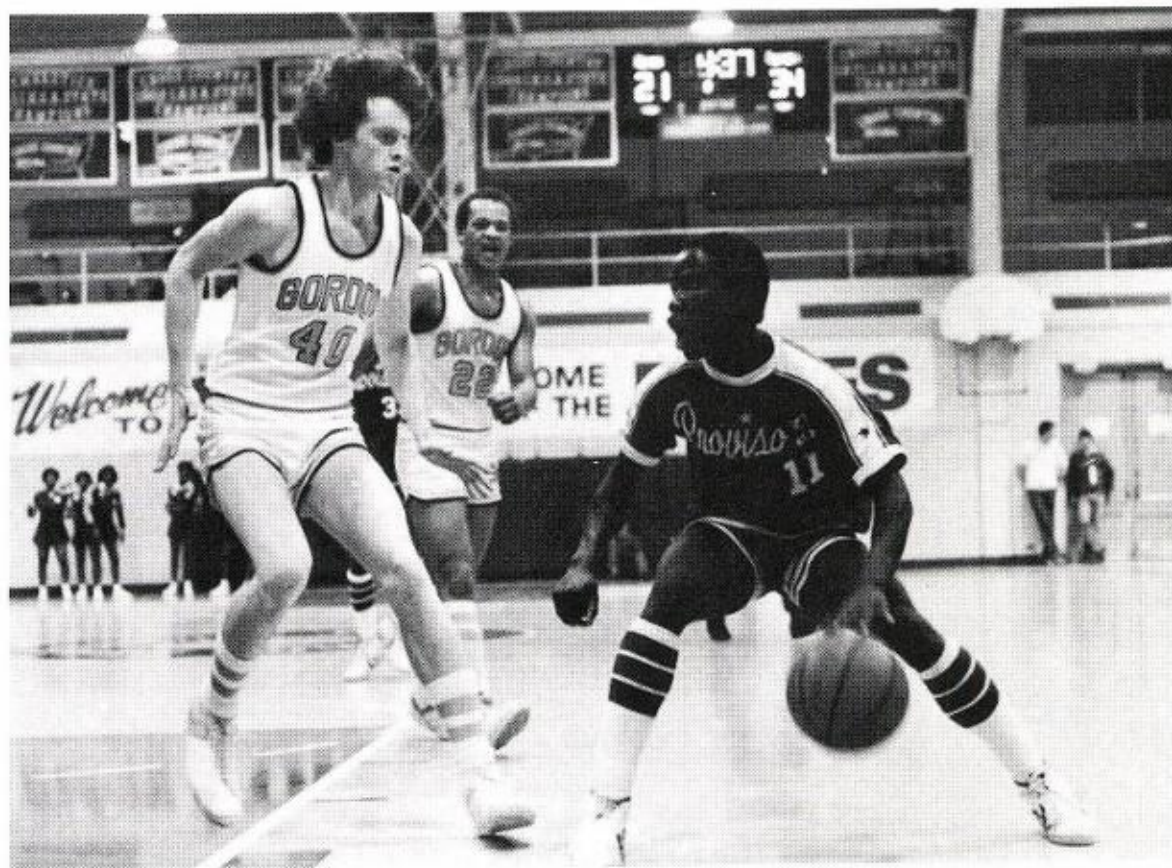

With the dynamic duo of John McIlvain and Charles Perry gone, inexperience loomed in the backcourt of Gordon Tech. Ray Egan, Phelan Powell, Glen Noesen, Vince Edwards, and Lemuel Rowans were all excellent, but unexperienced and unproven players. Juniors Tom Beyak, John Giordano, and Derrell Adams were also looking for a spot in the Gordon backcourt.

After months and months of preparation, November 21 arrived and the whole team was "sky high" Pats. When the contest started, both teams showed first game jitters. But after a relatively sloppy first half had ended, we sported a five point edge. With the start of the third quarter we began to dominate our opponent. From there we coasted to our first win behind Ed Wayda's 14 points. Scott Petway and Vince Edwards were also in double figures for the Rams.

With the sad experience of the Turkey tournament over, it was time to turn our attention to the brutal Chicago Catholic League. Our first opponent was St. Francis De Sales. We played an uninspired first half and found ourselves down at the midway point. After a few choice words at halftime by Coach Ociepka, things started to happen late in the third quarter. An amazing comeback followed and with 8 seconds left in the game Scott Petway took a pass from Ray Egan at the freethrow line, and calmly hit a 15 footer to tie the game at 56. De Sales called time out with two seconds left to set up a play. All hopes of a comeback victory ended when Dwayne Hunter unloaded a 35 foot bomb that hit nothing but net at the buzzer.

The following day we played our sloppiest game of the season. In the Battle of Addison Avenue we came out on top over Lane 61-40 despite committing 46 turnovers. With a 4-2 record, we prepared for the league favorite, De La Salle.

When De La Salle entered the gym on the following Friday night, we all knew we had our hands full. Some costly turnovers sealed our fate, and Mike Williams connected on two free throws in the final minute to assure a Meteor triumph.

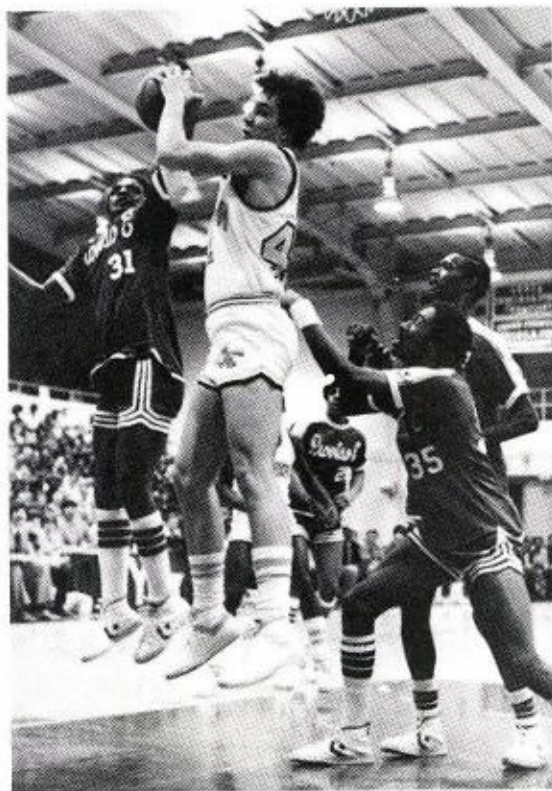

With a league record of 0-2, we needed a win at St. Rita the following Friday night. Behind George Porter's spectacular 28 points on 11 for 13 shooting and his 10 assists, Rita handed us our third straight league loss.

With a 4-4 record, we came home to face an always tough Westinghouse team the following night. That night proved to be our turnaround. We eased to a 19 point victory over the Warriors.

With an impressive win against Mendel the preceeding week, we stormed the den of the Leo Lions. The following week we played three tough games. We started out the week by beating Loyola on a Tuesday night in overtime. Against Brother Rice, we started out quickly and glided to an 81-67 victory.

The following night, we played on the road against St. Joseph's. The game went down to the wire, but in the end, a few costly turnovers did us in.

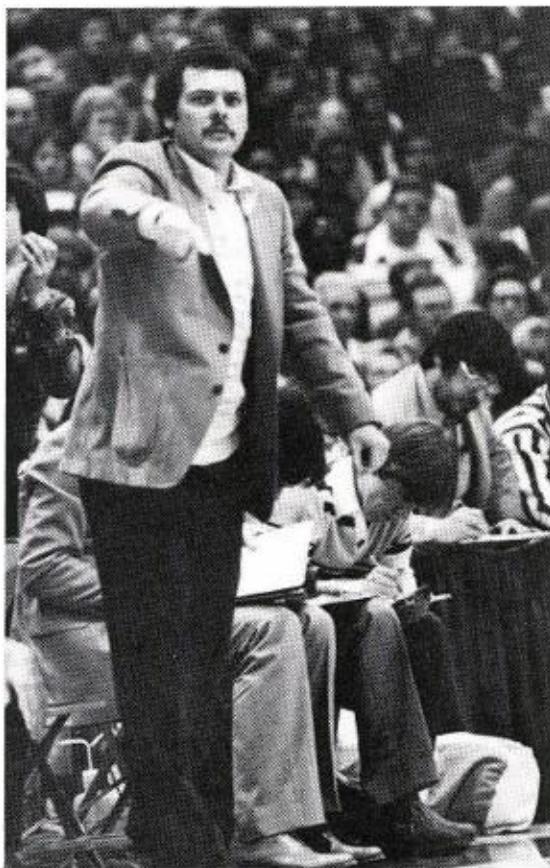

After this loss, we came home to face the Fenwick Friars. This game proved to have the most enjoyable outcome of the year. With a patented form, Moose hit two to give us 101 points. It was the final topping to a great night.

After we gave Fenwick a through thrashing, it was time for our arch rival, Weber. Pat McAvoy and Kevin Jennings played tough defense as we routed the Red Horde 70-51.

Our next victims were Mt. Carmel and St. Ignatius. We ousted Carmel 65-55. Against Ignatius, our defense proved to be too much for the Wolves, as we breezed to a 73-52 win.

Going into our final two league games, we were 17-6, and looking to enter the state tournament with the same record as last year. With a 19 and 6 record, we headed toward the Main South regional with building momentum. After losing our first three, we won the last 10 straight league

Proviso came out quick and before we knew it, we were down 32-17 in the second quarter. By half we had widdled their lead to five at 39-34.

When the Gordon Tech Fencers began our season, we were shaken. Although last year we had an experienced State Championship team and were proud of it, that was what we were worried about. Graduation took our entire Epee team and all the Foil Team except Tom Argy. We knew there was talent on the team, but we were inexperienced. It was difficult for the two seniors, Captain Luis Scaramuzza and Tom Stanley to accept that this season would be a time for the team to gain experience.

As the season approached, we began to feel confident. We were shaping up. Another boost was the appearance of Alumnus Bruce Ward, the 1978 State Foil Champion, who was going to help coach us. We strengthened our confidence during the preseason meet where we had a 5-1 record against our competition for this year. Next we began the season by fencing our traditional rival New Trier East, who we had barely beaten the previous week. We knew they wanted revenge, but we knew we could beat them.

This meet was the harbinger of the way most of the season went. Led by Tom Argy's strong performance and by the fencing of Dave Silva and Steve Curtis Gordon won the foil strip 6-3. But NTE had a veteran Epee Team, and the inexperience of Gordon's epeeist showed. With only two bouts to go, the score was NTE 9, GT 7. With GT needing both bouts to tie, Luis Scarmuzza stepped on the strip. In a pitched bout, Luis won. The score was 9-8. The meet's outcome would be determined by the next bout. If NTE won, it would go as a 10-8 victory over Gordon, but if Luis would win the bout the victory would be determined by the number of touches just as in our previous clash with NTE. The fencer for this bout was chosen by Mr. Morrison. Luis fenced well and had shown that he could win under pressure, so Mr. Morrison decided to keep him in but Luis fell 5-3. We had lost but we still felt confident because we didn't lose by much and thought that NTE would be our stiffest competition.

But we were not as strong as we thought. We fell to a weak New Trier West. Our losses began to mount, Main West and Main South both beat us twice. We gave these defeats grudgingly, we knew the other teams were not so much better, but just more experienced than we were. But we gain that experience when we lost, and when we stepped off the strip Mr. Morrison and

Bruce Ward told us our mistakes and how to correct them. As news got around that Gordon wasn't good, we developed into better fencers.

Their suspicions were confirmed at the Intra-Suburban Tournament. Gordon took a dismal fifth, but Bruce Ward congratulated them on their dogged determination and for not giving up hope. Throughout the season, glimpses of the type of team we could be burst out. We beat Culver Military Academy, a team from Indiana who scrimmaged with teams of Ohio State and Notre Dame.

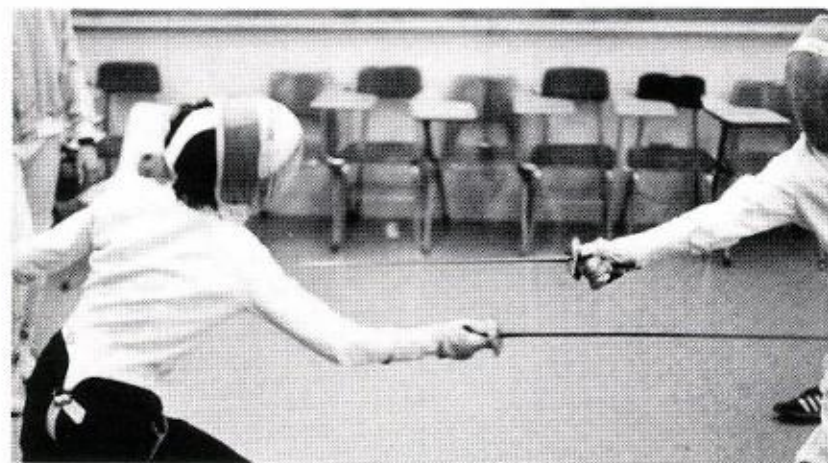

But when we faced New Trier East again, we knew that we had to win that one. We were 1-1 against them, and we didn't want to be second to our arch rivals, who were also our friends.

The confrontation was almost the same as our previous meet. The GT foil gave us a strong lead, but epee lost their first two bouts. But there was a difference. The GT fencers had gained experience. In the first meets they lost 5-1 and 5-2. Now they are losing 5-4, or as in the third bout they won. Then all GT epeeists had taken victories and they managed to win enough to tie the score 9-9. The fencing done by GT Squads was enough to give Gordon the victory by touches.

When we went down to Indiana to fence Culver, the Foil Team showed what they could do. Tom Argy was his usual strong self, while David Silva kept has steady improvement. But Steve Curtis' ability was revealed that day. Until then Steve had been like many GT fencers who were losing but gaining the knowledge of how to fence well and began to win. Because of their fencing, Gordon overcame their improvement we made during the past months.

But we were wrong. Only Luis was knocked out during the prelims. The rest moved into the quarter and semi finals. It was here that Gordon achieved most of its victories. Only David Silva and Tom Argy made it to the finals. But their victories in that round pushed Main South out of first and Gordon became Midwest Champions by four bouts. Because of this championship Gordon tied with New Trier East for second place in the IHSA. Tom Argy placed 2nd in the Midwest and David took 6th.

But for Tom and David, they had one more tournament to fence. It was the 1981 Junior Olympic Fencing Championship in Cleveland, Ohio. The nation's best under-19 fencers were there and Tom took 24th in the U-19 foil while Dave took 13th in U-16 foil.

It was a confusing year, starting at the bottom and working to become the Midwest Champions. This could not have been accomplished without Peter Morrison and Bruce Ward who showed us how to fence and then gave us the confidence to use these skills properly. For this, they have the deepest respect and admiration that we can give them.

The 1980-81 season was one that exemplified the fine tradition Gordon Tech stands for. Coming back from a tough winning season of 15 wins 6 losses and six returning varsity letter winners, Some people might think that the Rams would relay and await the upcoming season. But those people do not know the GT Grapplers. Bright and early in the pre-season those dedicated and hard working men were out working and shaping up with the determination and courage that breeds champions. Building a solid base for the heavenly stacked upcoming season.

Coach Dennis McCann's "Rams" were led by State Qualifiers Joe Klosinski (38-5) and John Graczyk (27-11). "Ski" replaced NCAA Champion Frank Santana (1973) and Dan Degnan (1975) as Gordon Tech's All-Time Winner. Along with Team Captain Graczyk, Marty and Frank Calkins combined for 30 wins and anchored the middle weights. They were the "Heart and Soul" of the Ram Team—enthusiastic, gusty competitors who never quit. 98 lb. District Champ Mike Calkins and 105 lb. Senior Mike Erenberg (3rd League, District) were dynamite lights, and Juniors Ron Plantz (Heavyweight 30-10) and Jim Jensen (30-3) were murder in the upper weights. Football star Plantz racked up 19 pins and placed in the 4th at Sectionals. Two one-point losses and a default at Districts marred a super season for Jim—17 pins and 3 Major Tournament titles.

Highlights of the season were dramatic victories over Mt. Carmel, 29-23, Buffalo Grove, 3-25, and Notre Dame, 29-28, and strong performances in Tournament competition—6 Sectional qualifiers, a near miss in Catholic League, and a bevy of victories at the talent rich Palatine Tournament and Sectional competition.

The Rams opened their season well prepared. The Grapplers, for the third year in a row, scalped the Lane Tech Indians and romped Orr with a final score of 48-8.

The second week into the season the Rams met up with a tough Lake Park team. After some early trouble in the light weights, things looked dim. Later on in the match, however, John Graczyk turned the tide with a much needed pin. Jim Jensen, following John's example, did the same. At this point the score was Lake Park 29-GT 24. This put the pressure on heavyweight Ron Plantz who had to pin his man to win the dual for Gordon. After a real nail biter, Ron had won 10-1 which left the Rams two points short of victory. Learning from defeat, but not accepting it, they bounced right back and beat Buffalo Grove 33-25, thanks to pins by twin brothers Frank and Marty Calkins.

The Rams next sent the De LaSalle

Sora uses a tight waist to keep control.

South.

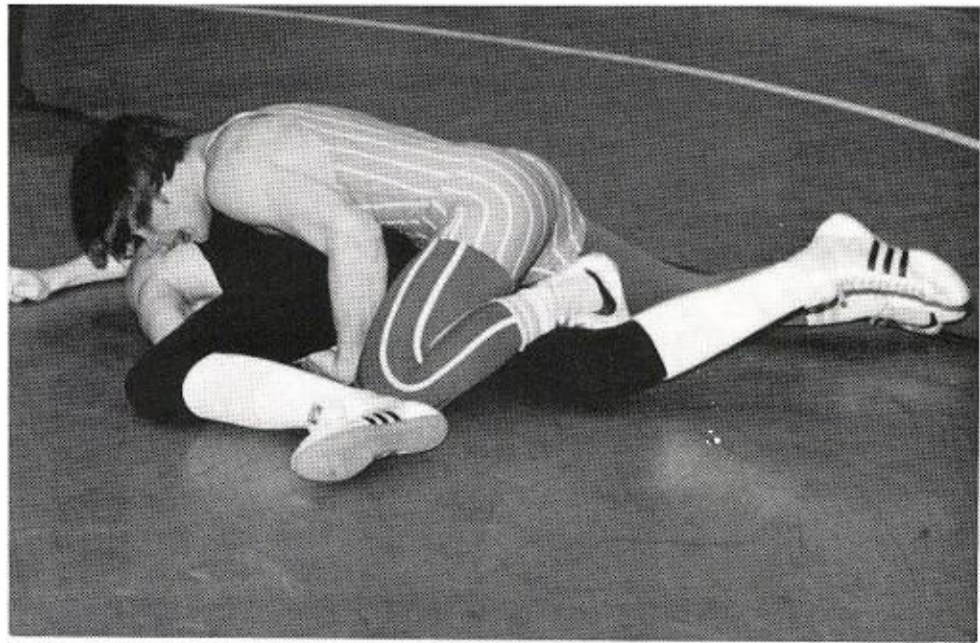

Passing the midpoint, the Rams were not about to slow down. Just the opposite was true; they were just turning on the steam. GT put the southside hit men out of commission beating Mt. Carmel 29-23 with the tremendous 40 second pin of "Cactus" Plantz over the Caravan's All-State tackle.

Continuing their winning ways, the Rams prevailed against Evanston with a 34-24 victory and the continuing support of the light weights and the constant effort of upper weights. 98 lb. Rocky Gawenda started it off and 119 lb. John Nonicki kept it going by pinning his opponent.

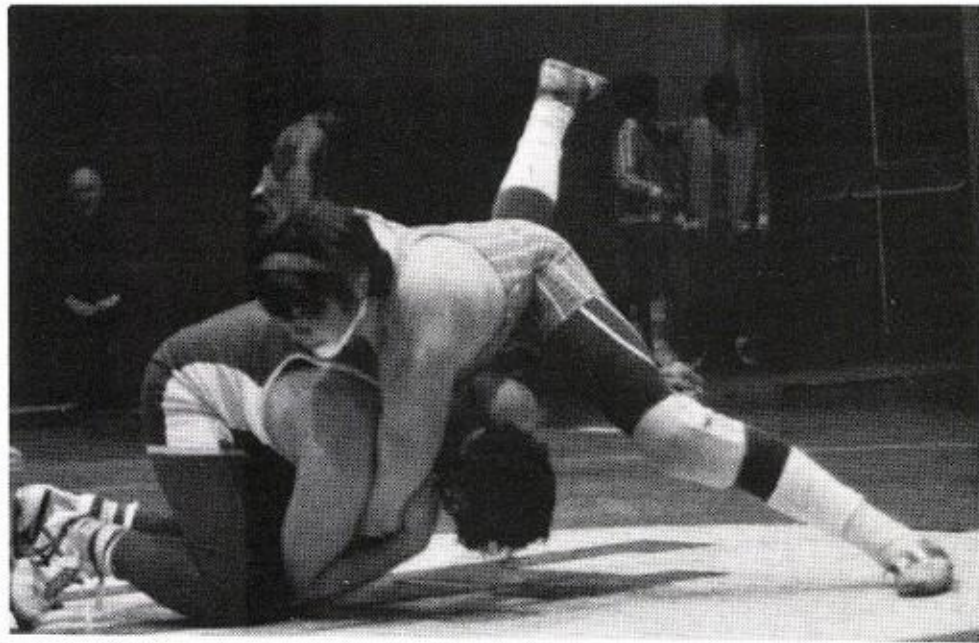

One of our last regular season opponents was Holy Cross. Although there were no pins, a solid effort was put in by all. The final score was 29-24.

Gordon Tech enjoyed another successful season in 1980-81. Tradition dictated that "toughness is our trademark."

WINTER ATHLETIC BANQUET

MARCH 27, 1981

The Winter Sports Banquet was held in March to honor those dedicated athletes on the Fencing, Basketball, and Wrestling teams.

The program began as toastmaster Mr. John Urban introduced Rev. Edwin Dubel, who gave the invocation.

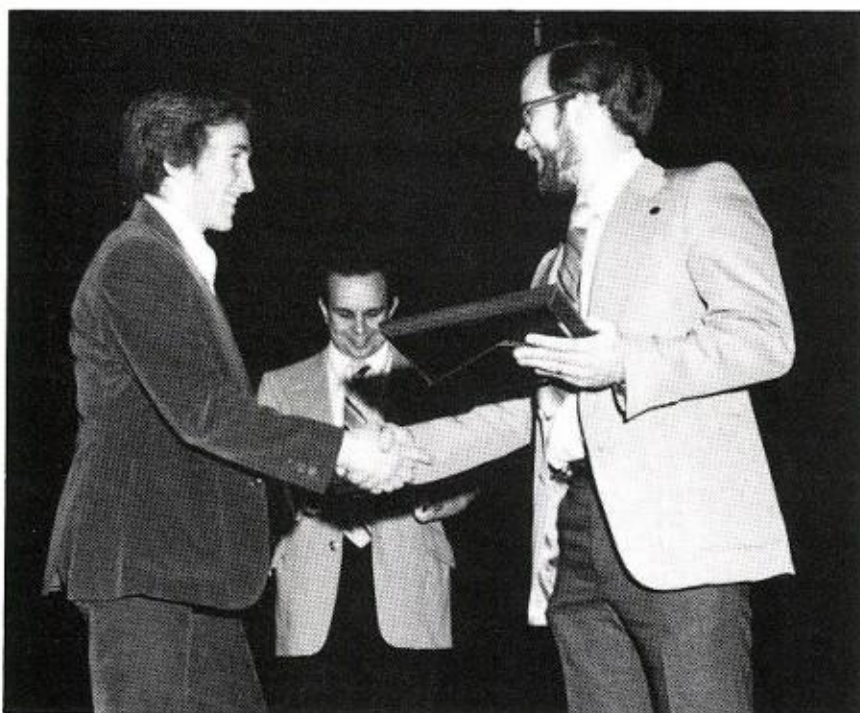

After dinner, the Head Basketball Coach, Mr. Bob Ociepka, was introduced. Basketball was highlighted for its accomplishments in making it to the Sectionals.

Next the Fencing Coach, Mr. Peter Morrison, gave out awards to those Fencers who excelled above the rest of the team. From there, the Head Wrestling Coach, Mr. Dennis McCann highlighted the team's seventh place victory in the Sectionals.

The banquet was brought to a close by the handing out of crosses to the Senior's mothers by Fr. Mitrenga and the giving of the Benediction by Rev. Alexander Kocon.

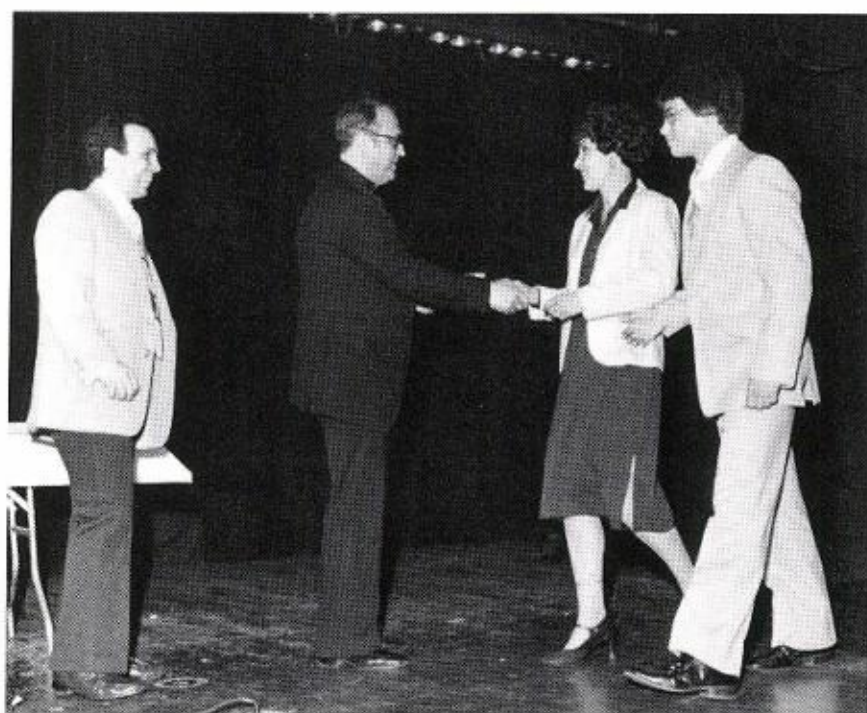

Fencer, Senior Tom Argy, was awarded the Most Valuable Fencer by the proud Coach Mr Morrison.

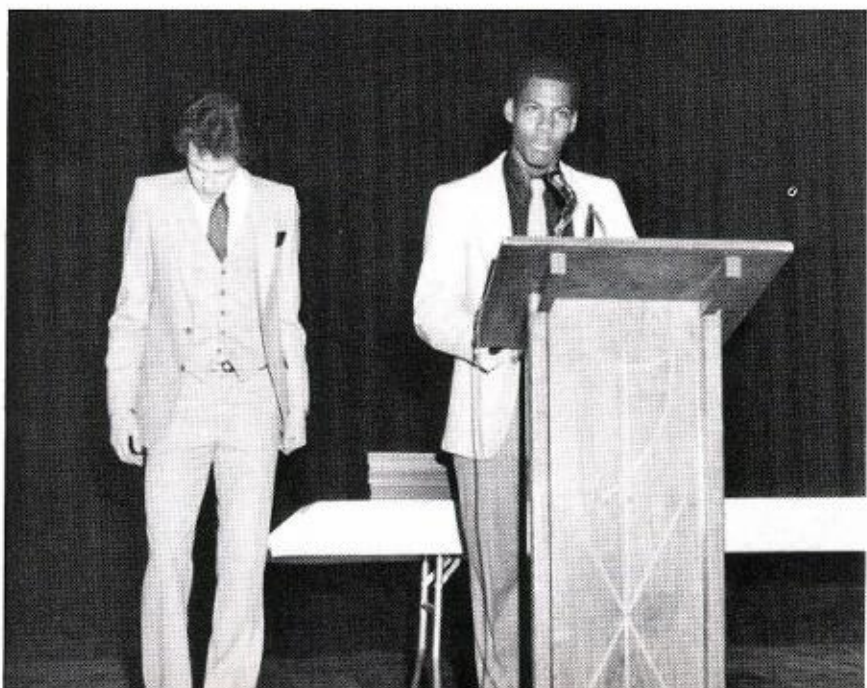

The proud Senior, Frank Calkins, accepts the Coaches Award from Coach Mark Puchalski.

Coach Dennis McCann gladly awards Senior, John Graczyk with the Coaches Award for Wrestling.

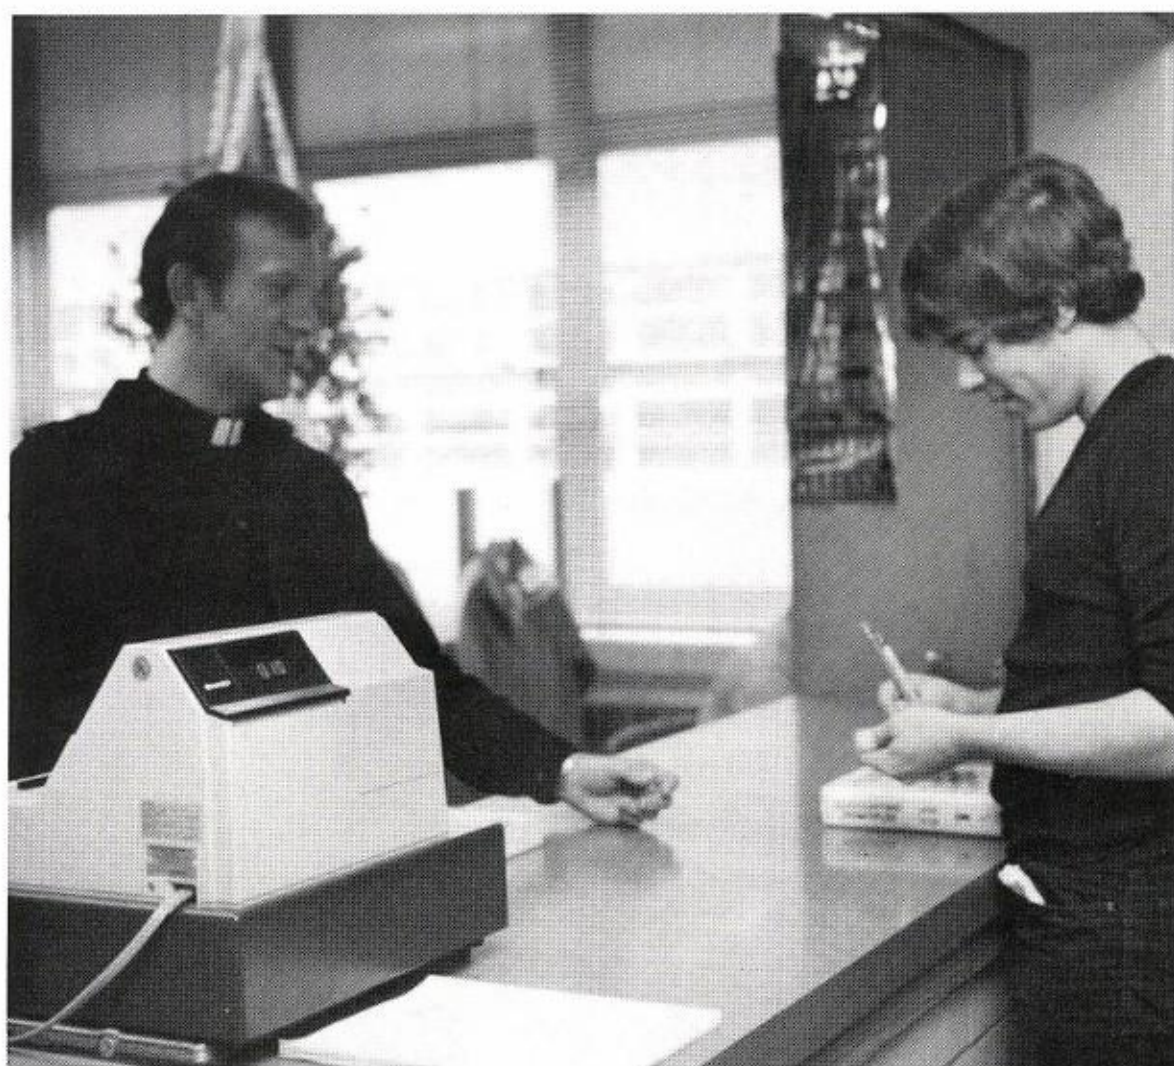

As head wresling Coach, Dennis McCann stands by to shake the hand of the Most Valuable Wrestler, Joe Klosinski, while Joe's mother receives a crusifix.

Most Valuable Basketball Player, Senior and Co-Captain, Scott Petway stands aside whild Coaches Award winner, Senior and Co-Captain, Darryl Smith gives a thank-you speech to Coach Ociepka.

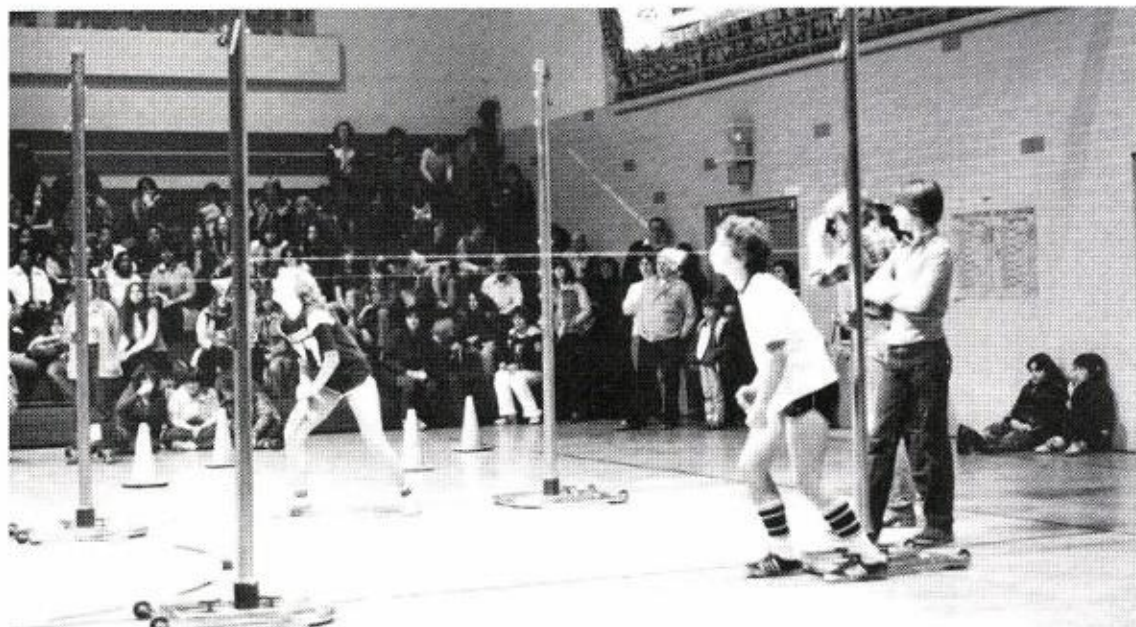

SERVICE

STUDENT COUNCIL

This year's Student Council started slowly with leadership from officers Dick Lalowski, Marty Calkins, and Frank Clark. Homecoming was the first task. The theme for this year's Homecoming was Nostalgia. Included in the Homecoming festivities was a mask day, a tie day, and a nostalgic dress up day. During the year, the council sponsored two Challenge of the Sexes, two successful roller skating parties, and four Battles of the Bands.

The Big Brothers consists of Student Council seniors. Their responsibilities include helping the freshman get orientated with the school and promoting school Activities. This year to distinguish the Big Brothers from other seniors, orange shirts with special insignias were purchased. The moderator for this year's Big Brothers was Mr. Robert Derendal.

Fr. Mitrenga and the Principal of Alvernia participate in the "Family Feud" competition.

RAM-PAGE

EDITORS:

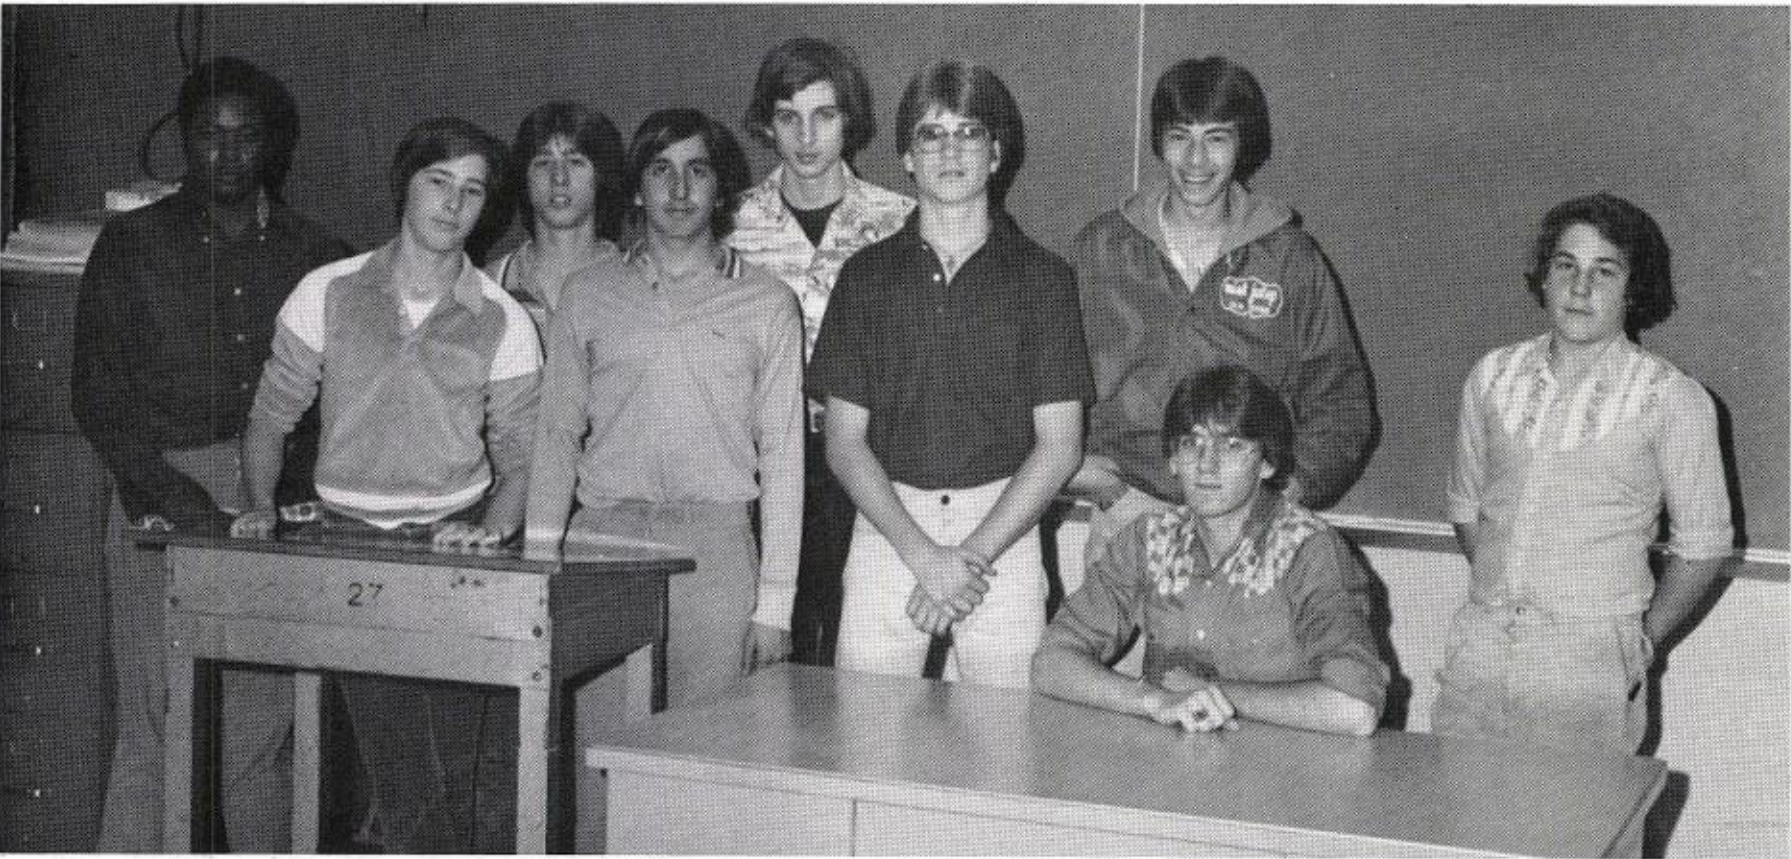

Seated: John Bochum, Mr. James Dermody, Samuel Nam, Standing: Ray Bendig, Kevin Bosetzny.

The Ram Page, advised by Mr. James Dermody, provides Gordon students with an informative and entertaining view of the school community. This year the Ram Page staff rolled nineteen issues off the presses. Through participation on the Ram Page staff, students gain practical experience in journalism. Additionally, Mr. Dermody's journalism class gives students an in depth understanding of journalistic techniques. Indeed, the Ram Page has proved itself an invaluable service to the school community.

SENIOR STAFF:

The main objective of the yearbook is to collect and record the activities and the spirit of the year. From late August and throughout the school year, the staff is writing copy, drawing layouts, and taking pictures.

This year, as in the past, a handful of staff members travelled to visit prestigious Columbia University for a journalism seminar. The three sophomores and one junior were among 3000 student journalists who attended the annual convention.

In addition, this year's staff would like to thank Mr. Robert Perrin for his work and dedication to the students of Gordon Tech during his fourteen years of service.

WKGT-TV

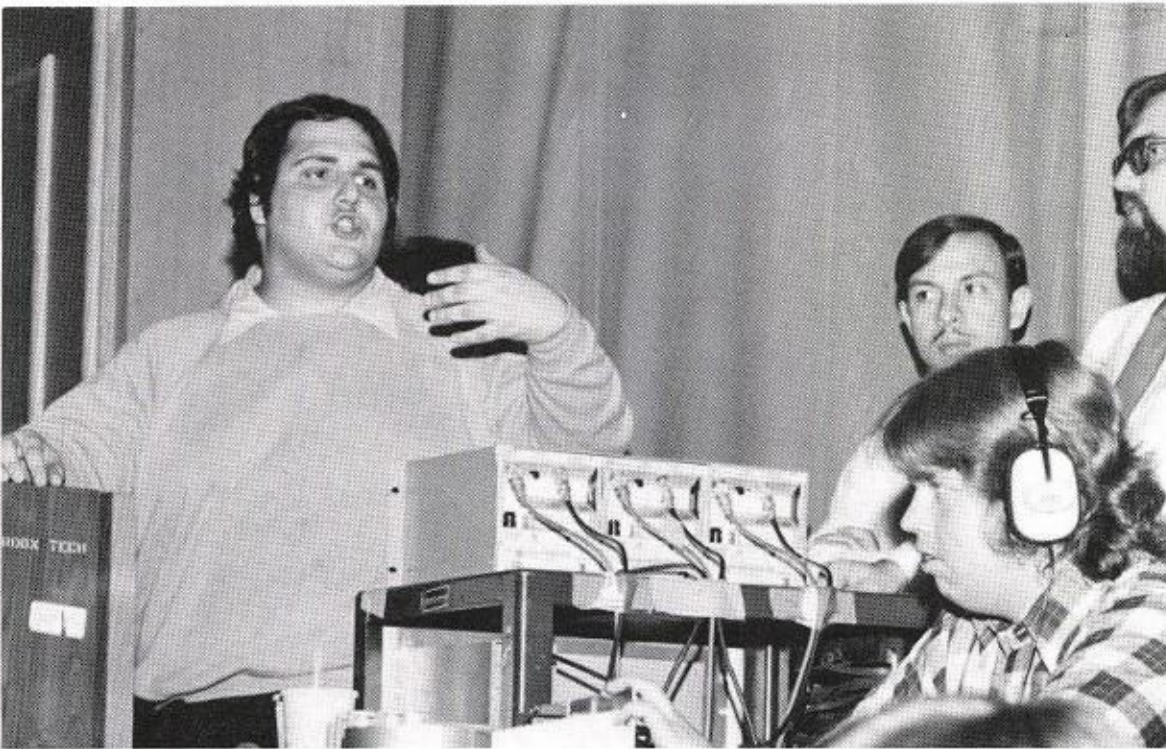

STAFF CHIEFS

Standing: Edward Friese, Lou Antonelli.
Seated: Mr. Robert Morris.

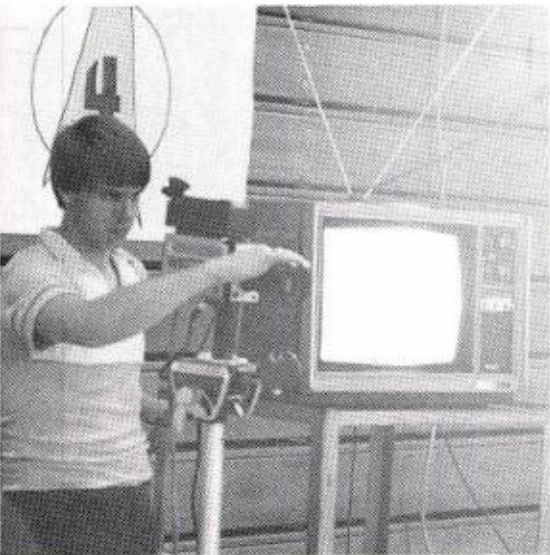

As the video industry is becoming a major influence on our world, Gordon Tech does its part to inform and instruct students in this field. WKGT, Gordon's own closed circuit television station, fulfills this task with marked success. This year, the WKGT staff put together a number of new shows including "Rock Review" with host Lou Antonelli, and "Gordon Today" with Mark Nilson and Scott Clewis. In addition, the staff videotaped the Rams' home basketball games and the annual Sports Night. Through WKGT and the television production classes, students receive first-hand experiences in the television industry and may possibly consider a career in this growing field.

Mr. Salvino's overhead projector is a trusty friend who lets him write on the wall and look at the students at once.

Mr. Reyes uses a film in his woodshop class to instruct students in the proper use of tools.

LEARNING CENTER

The Learning Center, Library, is the academic heart of the school. It also serves a purpose in providing students with reading matter for their avocational and leisure pursuits. The library staff consists of both employed personnel and volunteers. All of the work of the Learning Center is coordinated by Mr. Tom Neihengen.

Seated: Mr. Thomas Neihengen. Standing: Helen Stasic, Madeline Macklin, Barbara Nowak, Annamae Hitchens, Mary Zehentmaier, Barbara Kuhn.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The purpose of the National Honor Society, moderated by Fr. Mitrenga, is to promote the four qualities of leadership, character, service, and scholarship. The main function of the society is the tutoring program. Students having academic difficulties are given assistance on a one to one basis with the Honor Society members. In addition, honor society members participate in the annual blood drives, Shamrocks Against Dystrophy Campaign, the twenty-four hour basketball marathon and the Resurrectionists Banquet in May.

The National Honor Society sponsors the annual Blood Drive which helps the entire Gordon community.

SCIENCE FAIR

The Science Fair, sponsored by the Science Dept. with Mr. Robert Kaiser and Mr. Eugene Wleklinski as chairmen, was held on January 26th. Of the 235 projects received, 110 were displayed for judging. Judging was based on creativity, originality, scientific content, and quality of research work. Sixteen of the projects were judged as outstanding and were sent to the Museum of Science and Industry for city-wide competition.

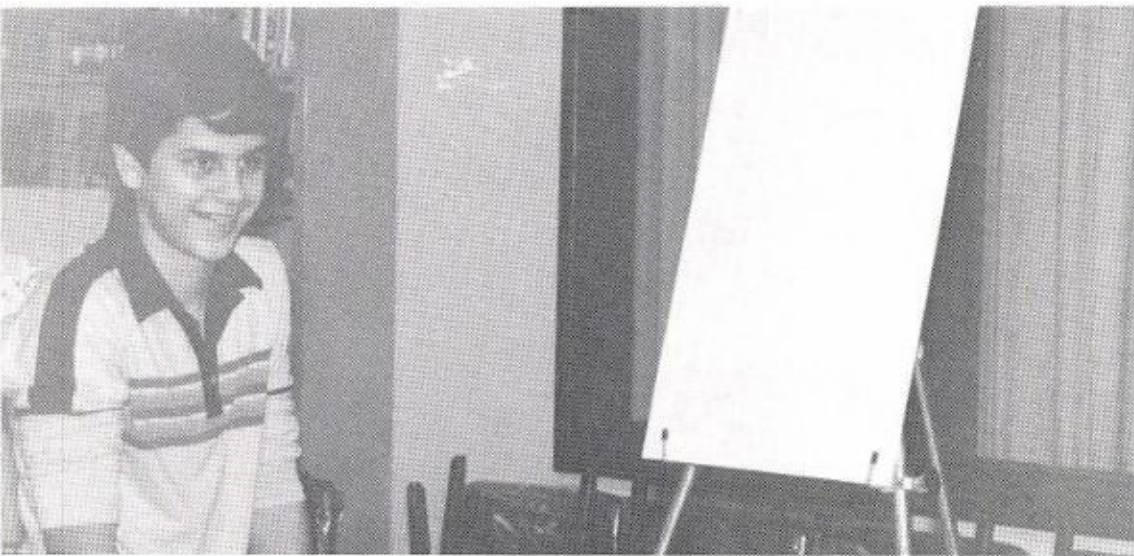

Mr. Wleklinski and Fr. Wroblewski judged some of the 110 judged and displayed projects.

The activities at the apiary were of interest to some.

Freshman Jim O'Malley has an interest in Oriental medicine.

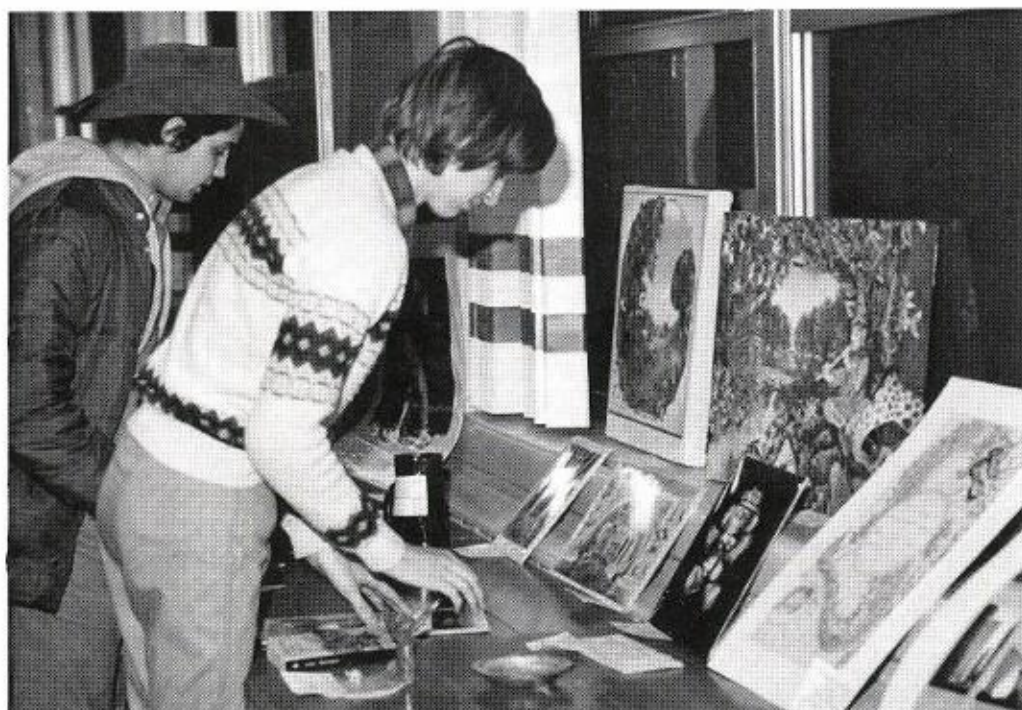

Joe Czupek, who won the eighth grade Science Fair last year, took the top prize this year with a perfect score of 20.

Francisco Scaramuzza and his classmates are fascinated with someone's computer project.

ART FAIR

FRIDAY MARCH 20, 1981

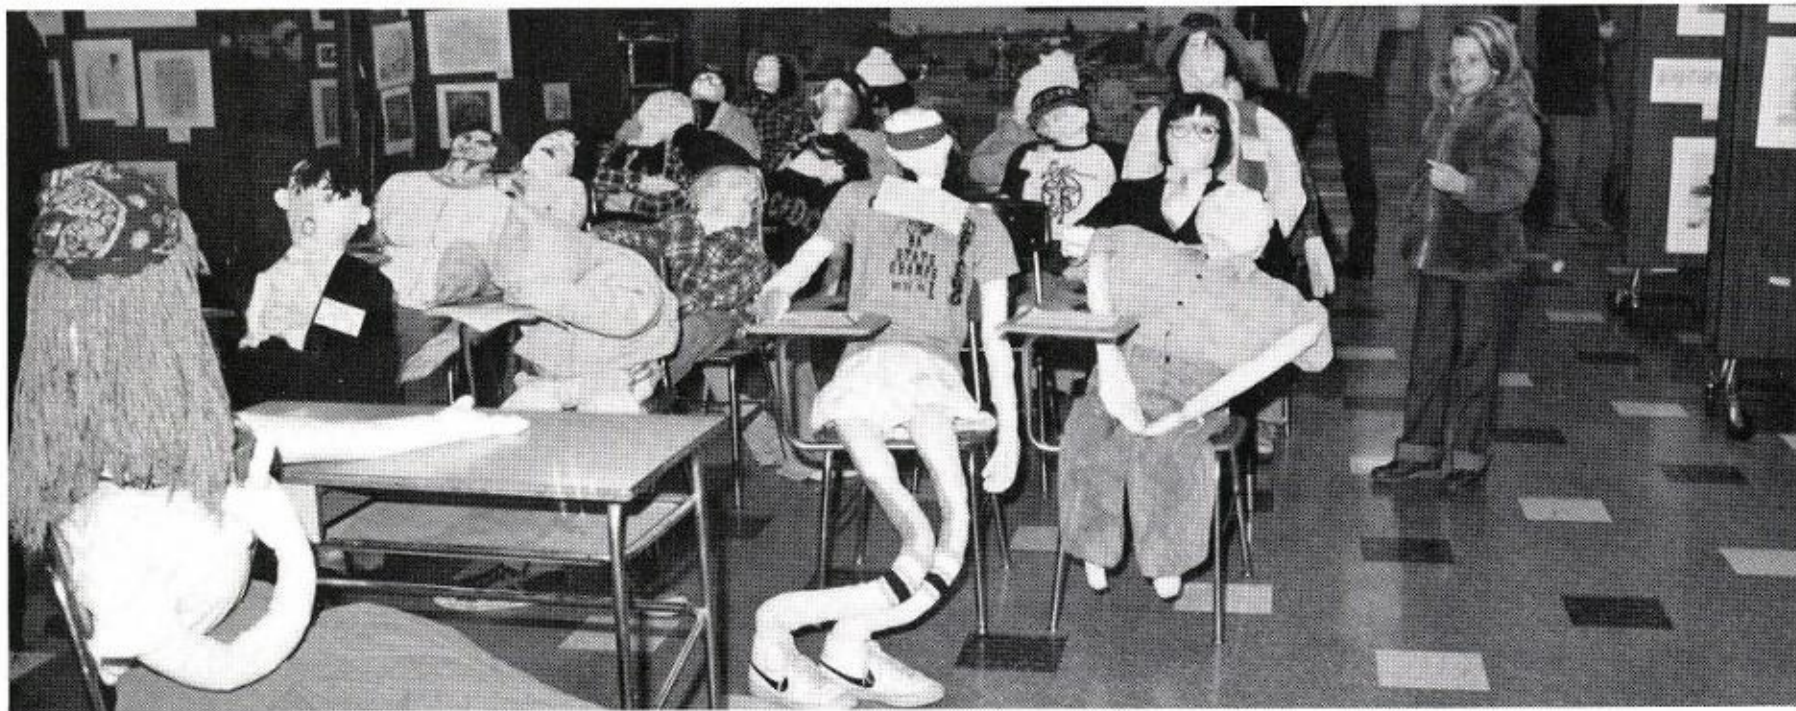

Steve Imparl and Leszek Antczak were among the students who participated and visited the Art Fair.

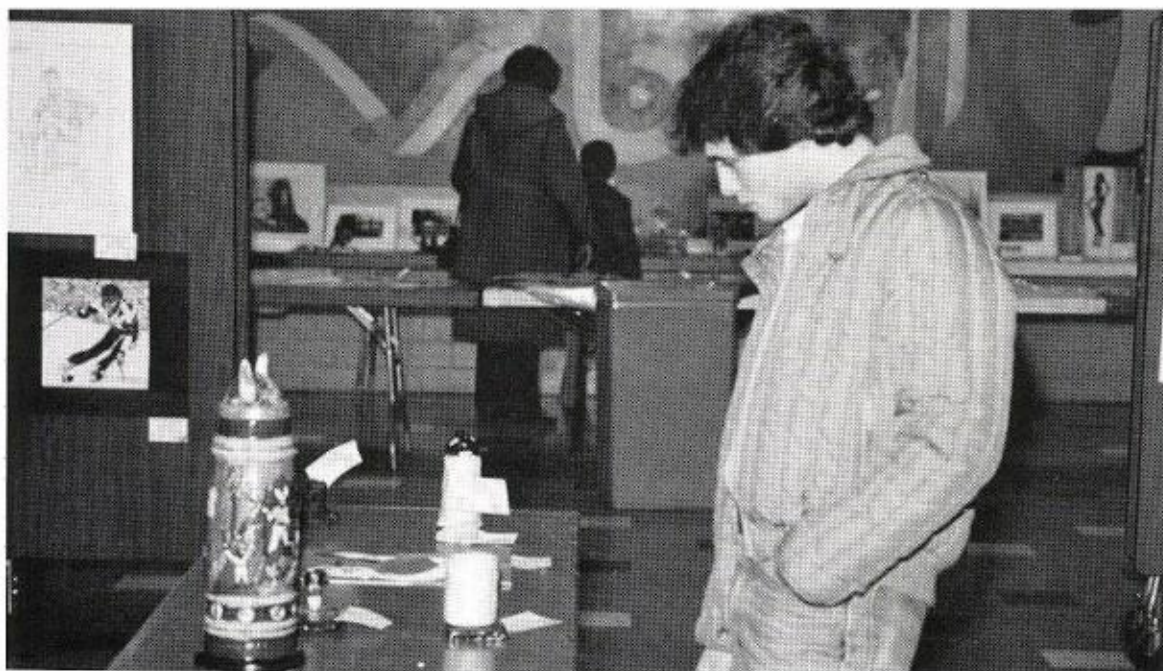

One project displayed was this plaster of paris painted eagle.

A small child who visited the Fair was fascinated by Ms. Kozan's Art Class.

The intricate works in ceramics fascinate this visitor to the Fair.

Students displayed their works on upright cafeteria tables.

The real Ms. Kozan brought this "reasonable facsimile" for display.

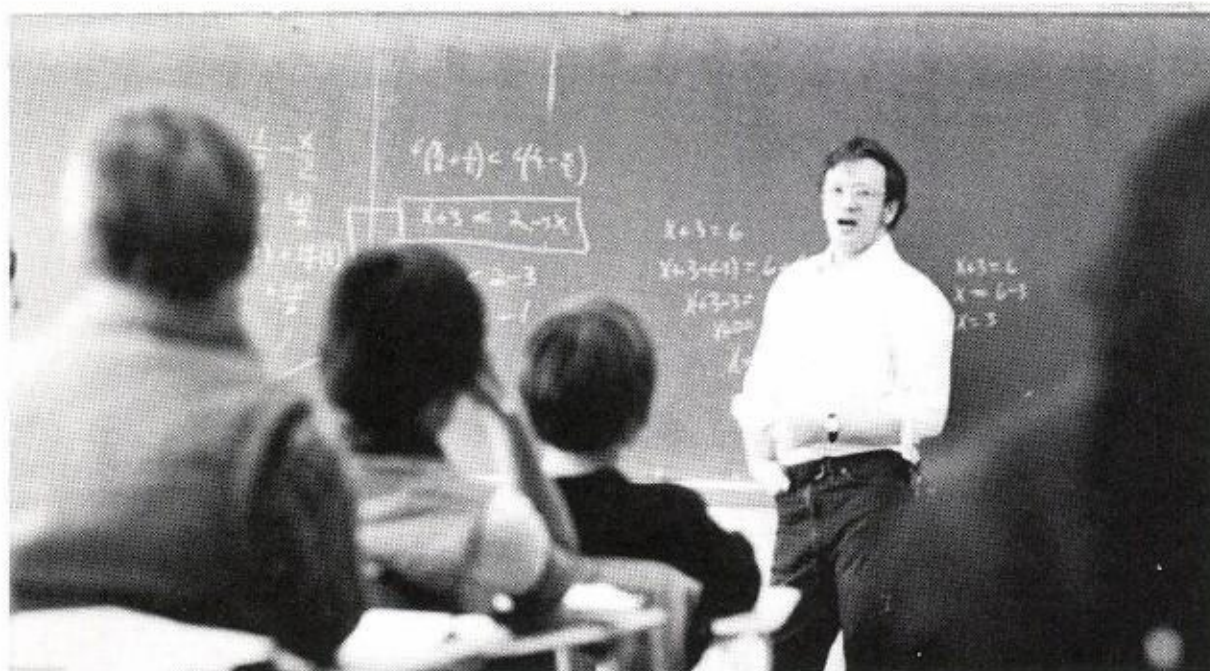

Everything in sight was closely examined by the eager visitors.

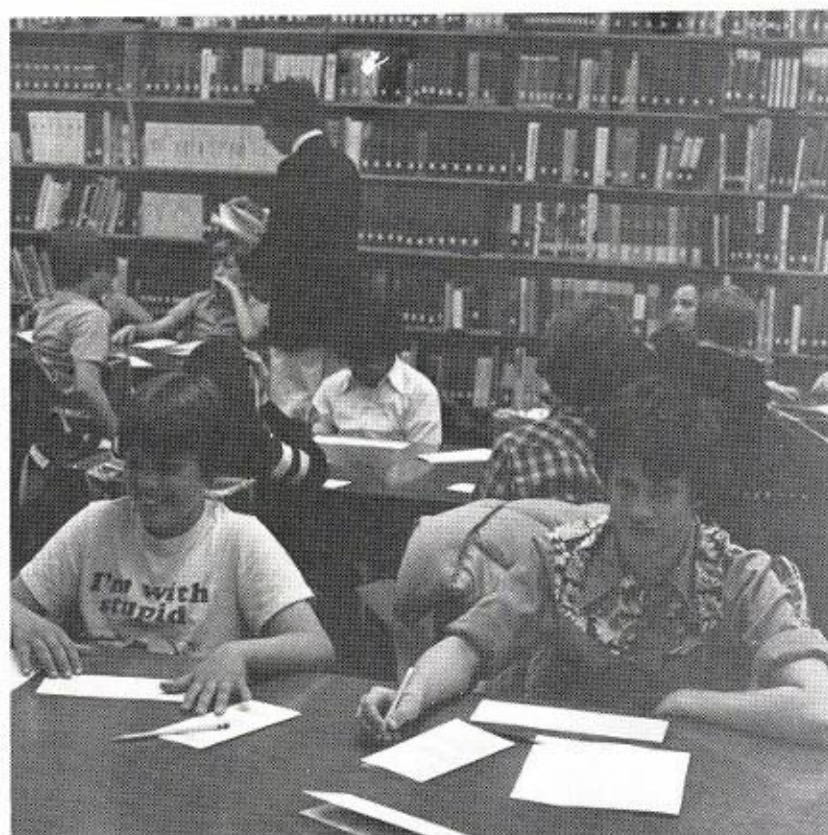

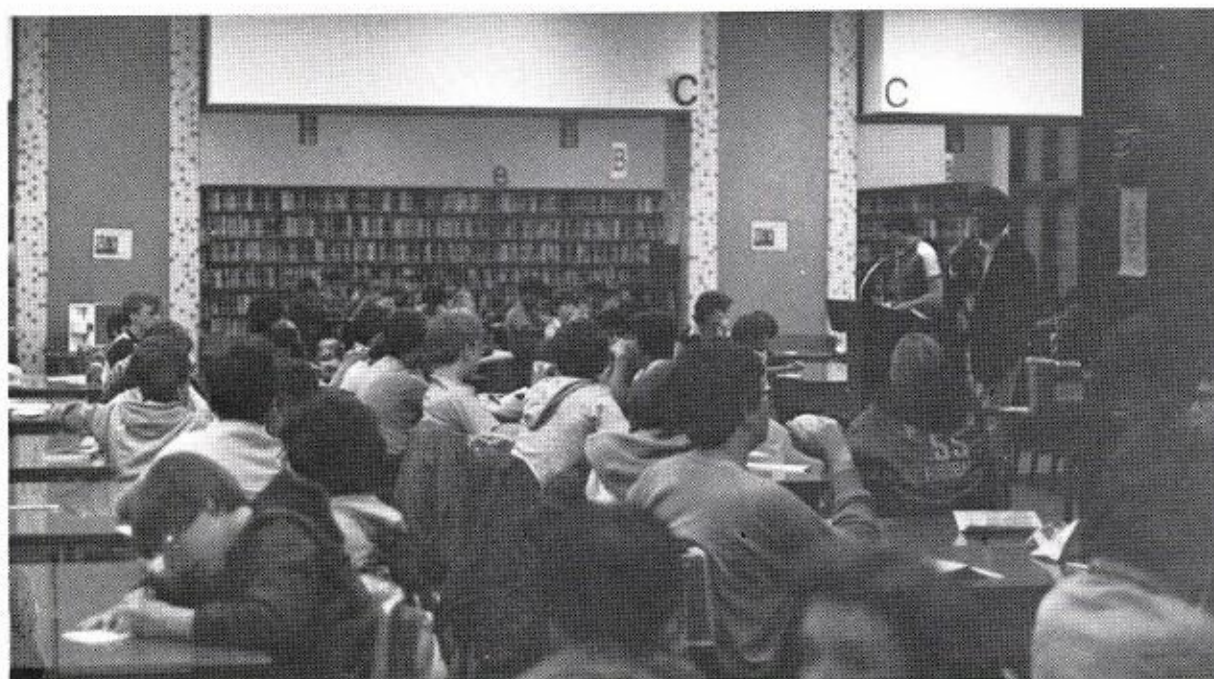

The worlds of form, paint, clay, and glaze were appealing to all.

HONORS PROGRAM ACTIVITIES

Mr. David Trahey held a Saturday morning Alegbra class for interested and qualified eighth grade students.

Mr. Perrin gives instructions to the students who participated in the Grammar and Usage Exam in April.

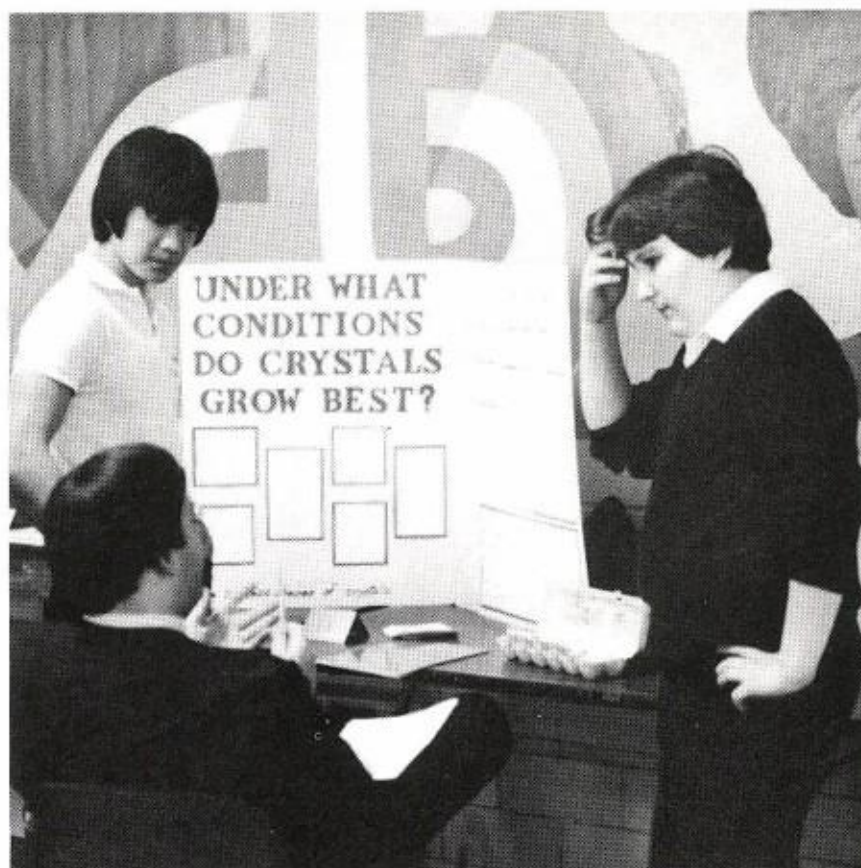

Three eighth grade students from St. Edward school took all the awards in the Grammar and Usage exam.

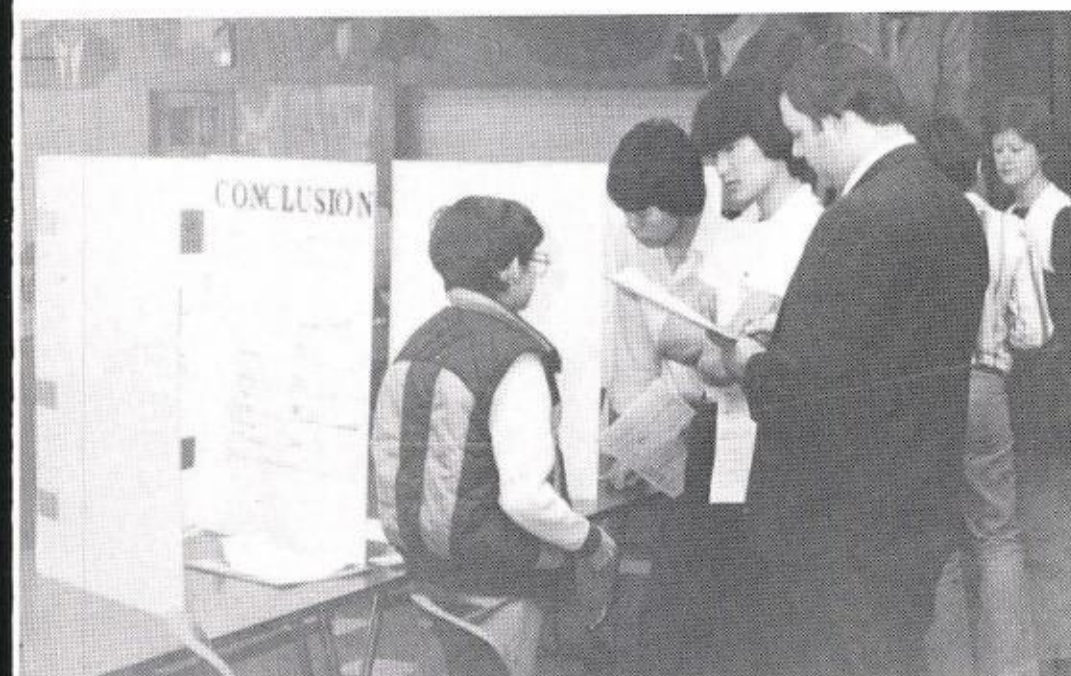

Some of the students found the Scantron materials amusing.

National Honors Society volunteers assisted faculty members in the judging of the 7th and 8th grade exhibits at the February Science Fair.

Mr. Robert Kaiser quizzes an entrant on his methods, procedures, and conclusions.

Senior Tony Cho was a member of Mr. Kaiser's judging team.

COOPERATIVE WORK TRAINING

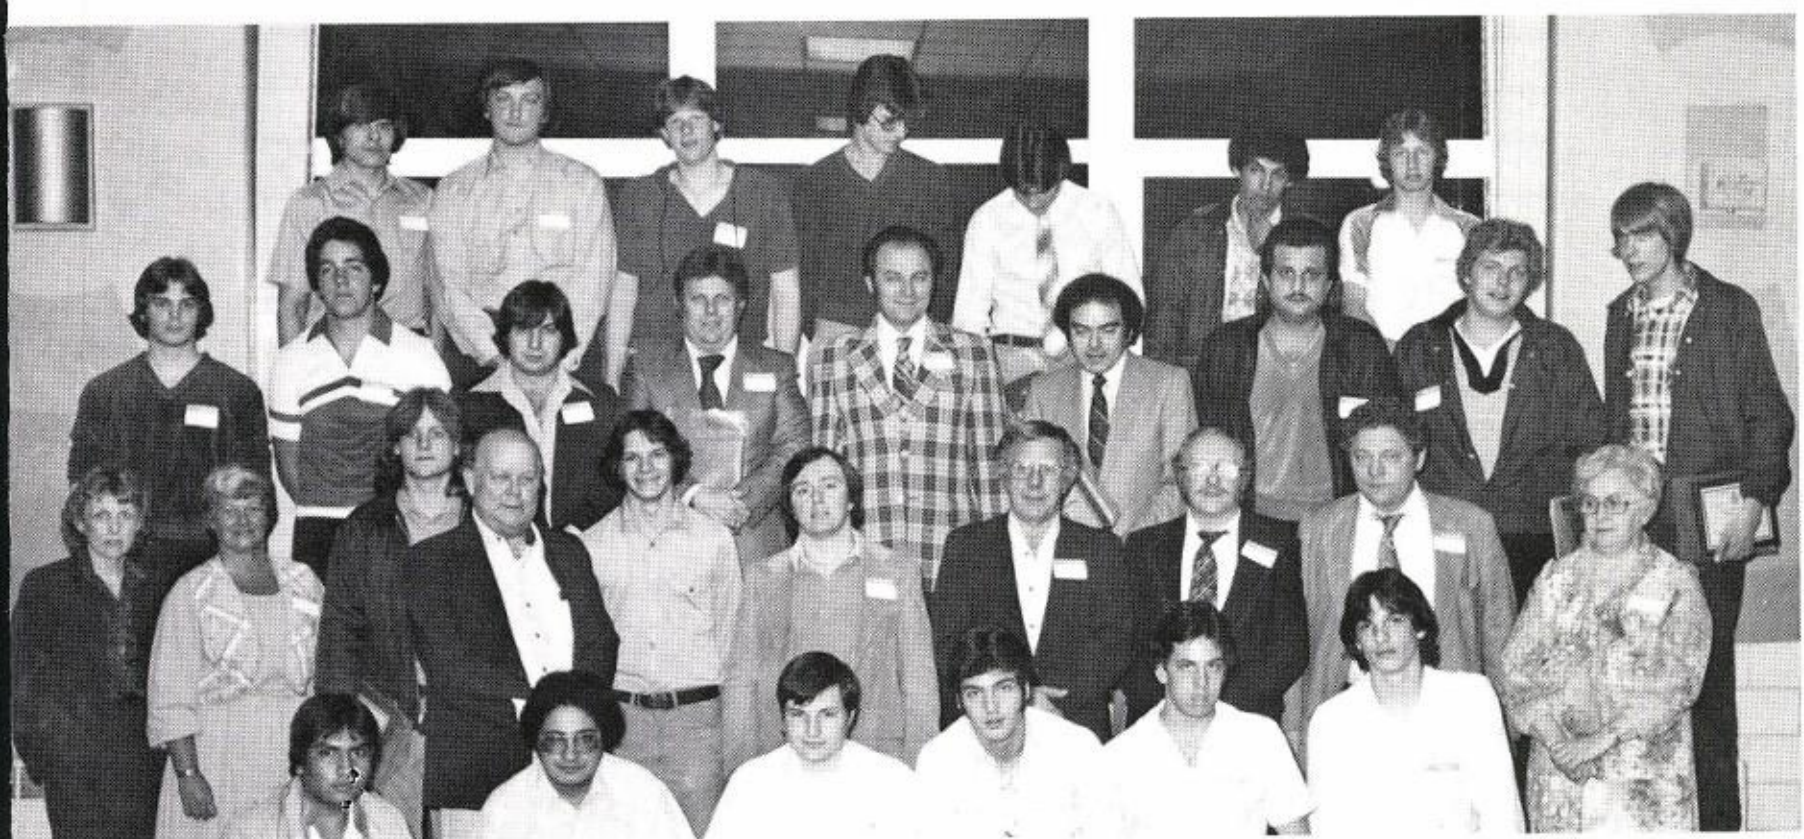

Under the leadership of Mr. Vince Salvino and Mr. Jim Szymanski students in the CWT program are able to gain valuable, on the job, training and experience while they are still in school.

Typically, a student spends at least half the day in class and then he reports to his job. His employer grades him on his work; of course, the student is also paid for his labor.

Since its inception, this has been a popular and beneficial program for Gordon Tech juniors and seniors.

Mr. Salvino chats with senior Ed Lange as Assistant Principal Telkes talks with Mr. Szymanski.

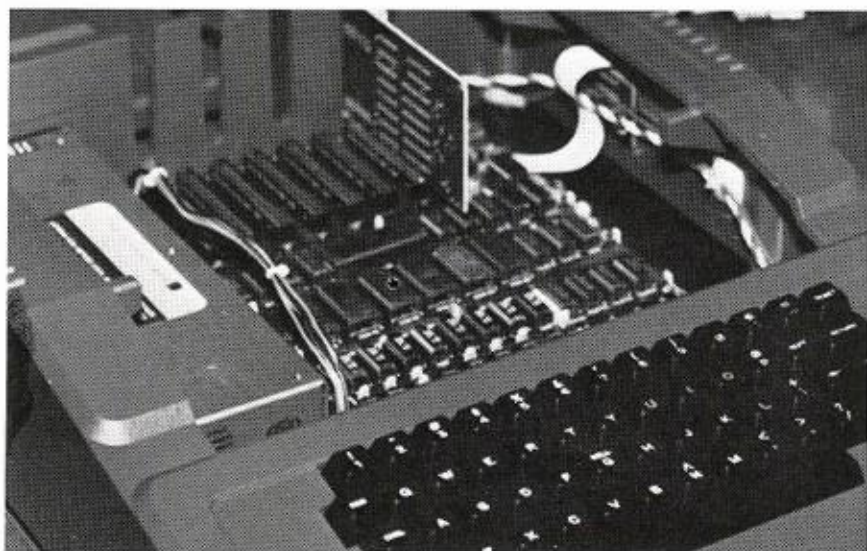

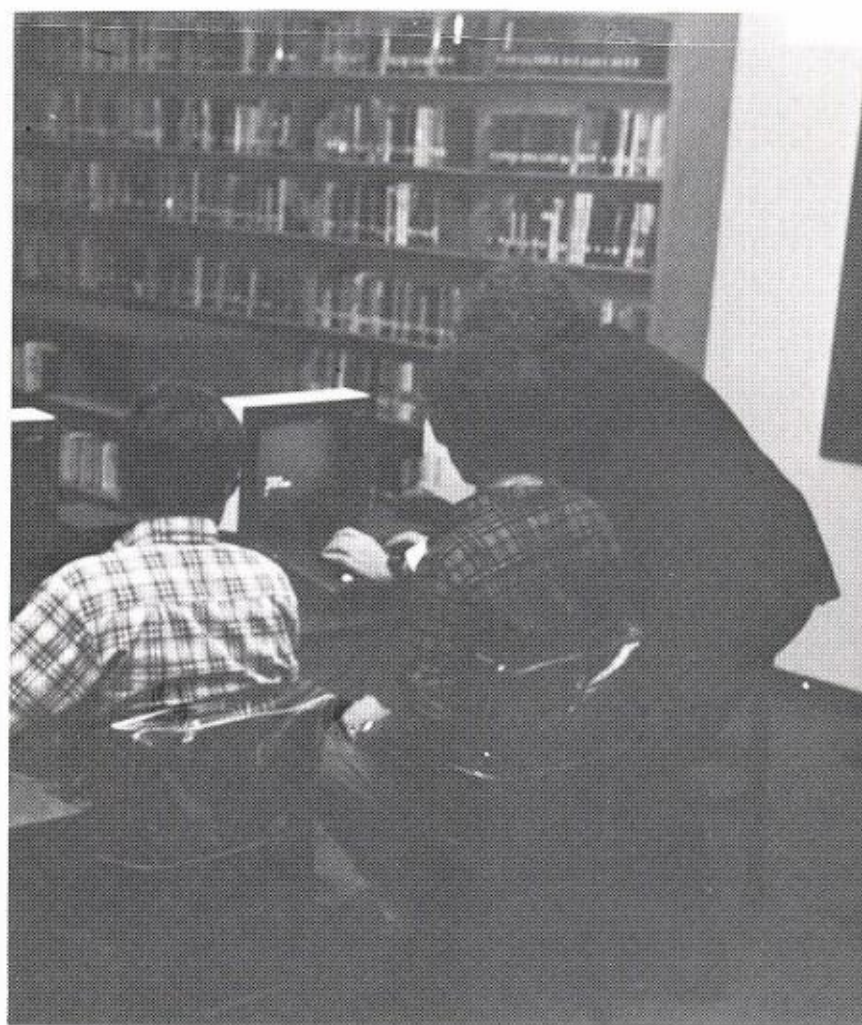

Assistant Principal Malinski presents an Award at the annual CWT dinner.

Computers

Since computers are the way of the future, Gordon Tech has instituted a computer class to instruct students in this field. This year Gordon has purchased three Apple computers to assist in the instruction of "Computers and Society", Gordon's newly offered class. This class is taught by Mr. John Mead. This class is directed toward programming and computer application in science, engineering, communication, and business. In addition, "it also explores related futuristic topics and social implications pertaining to the merging cybernetic age" as Mr. Mead put it. The computer class is to be commended for its effort in preparing students for possible career choices in this rapidly growing field.

Mr. Mead assists a student in entering program information into one of the new Apple computers.

of the Brewster's personal basement cemetery.*

Elaine (Pamela Berkman) listens to advice on love from the maiden aunts, Abby (left—Claudia Schader) and Martha (Terri Lopez).

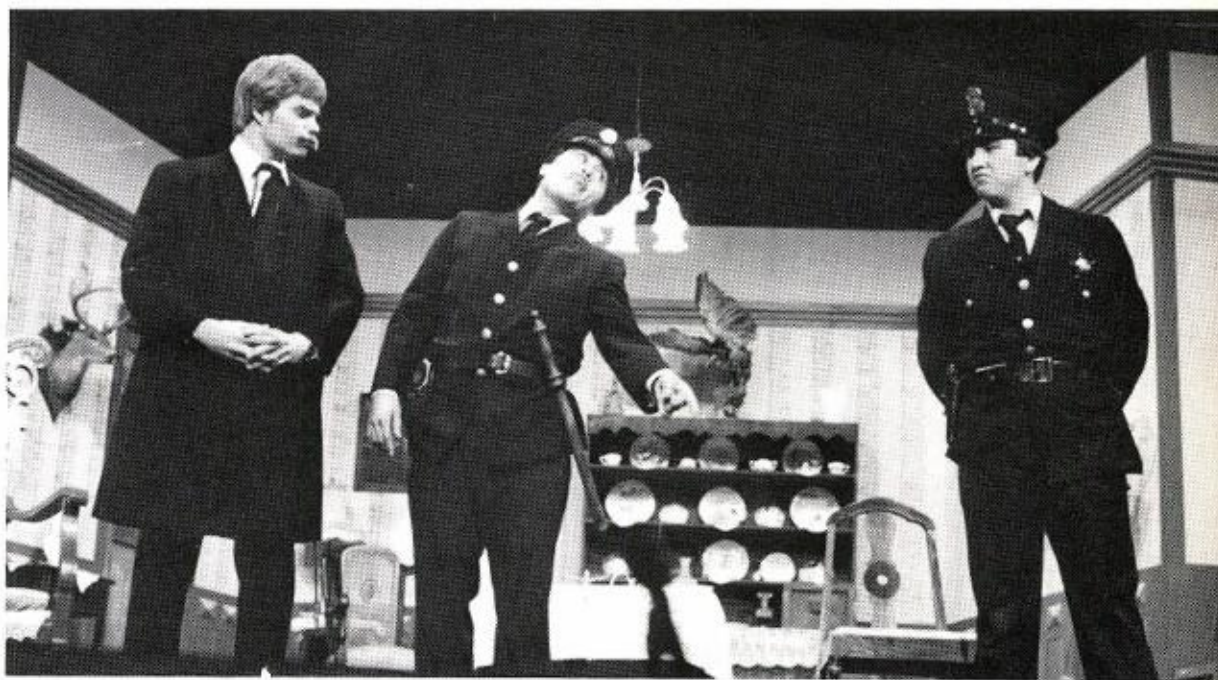

Mortimer seems wary of having his aunt come up from behind.

Lt. Rooney (Bill Seene) tells O'Hara: "You're suspended, and no, you can't come to the station and use the typewriter."

"Oh No! You go into the cellar with him!" says officer Broday (Jesus Alvarado).

"Well Aunties, thanks for the hospitality."

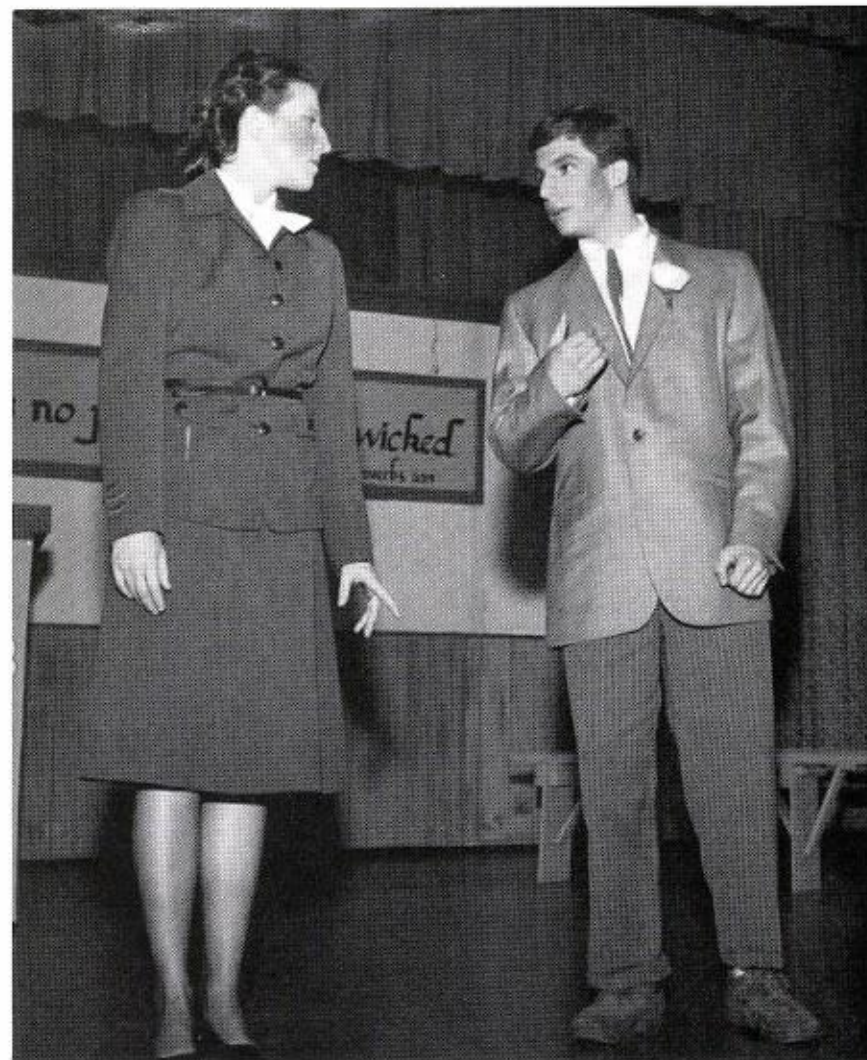

Dr. Harper (Rich Clesen) expresses his concern about the Brewster sister's worldly nephew, Mortimer.

The lack of an offensive punch doomed the 1981 baseball Rams. They had problems scoring runs. In one half of their games the Rams scored two runs or less. Another major factor for the Rams doom was their lack of hitting. Only one starter, centerfielder Tom Vanoni (.333), batted over .300.

The Rams opened their 1981 campaign on March 26 with a 2-0 victory over Roosevelt. Senior pitchers Steve Smusyn and Don Johnson combined for the shutout allowing Roosevelt only three hits. The Rams evened their record by losing an extra inning game to Schurz by a score of 10-9. Senior Tom Vanoni was the hitting star with four hits.

The third game of the season saw the Rams score 17 runs against Taft's 14 runs. For the fourth game the Rams traveled to Westchester, Illinois to play St. Joseph. The Rams should have stayed home. The final score was 7-1 in favor of ST. Joseph.

Against neighbor St. Benedict's senior Don Pierucci hit the first Ram homerun of the season, as the Rams won 14-9. The Rams split a doubleheader with St. Patrick winning the first game 6-4, and losing the second game 11-0. Excellent pitching from senior Don Johnson and a long homerun by junior Duke Sienkowski accounted for the first game victory.

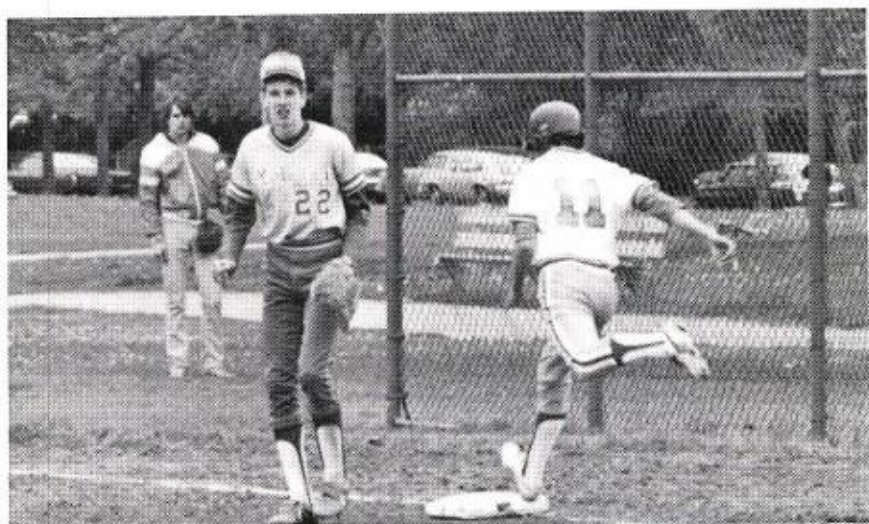

The Rams played their second doubleheader of the season against Arlington. The Rams had a tough day losing both games by the identical scores of 3-2. The second game went 9 innings.

On April 15, 1981, the Rams opened their Catholic League Conference Season. Loyola was the opponent for the first conference game and proved to be a worthy opponent winning 13-3 over our Rams. The Rams got back on the right track with a non-conference win over St. Gregory 7-0. Senior Leigh Hirschauer pitched the shutout—striking out nine and giving up only two hits. The Rams lost their second straight conference game striking out nine batters in a losing cause.

The big problem in the St. Lawrence game, May 3, was again lack of timely hitting. Gordon Tech left 15 runners stranded on base losing 5-1. Poor hitting continued against St. Rita, as they beat the Rams 4-1. Against St. Ignatius, Gordon Tech built up a 9-1 lead, and held on to win 9-7, for their first road victory. Junior Geno Pignataro with two hits plus three RBI's led the Rams offensively against St. Ignatius.

On May 6, Gordon Tech pulled a big upset knocking off powerful Brother Rice 5-4. Senior Tim O'Conner went the distance on the mound allowing only 5 hits and 4 unearned runs. Senior Scott Davidson had the game winning RBI. After playing a great game against Brother Rice, the Rams turned right around and played their worst game of the year against Quigley South 11-0.

On May 13, against DeLaSalle Gordon Tech jumped out to a quick three run first inning lead. That was all the Rams scored and ended up losing to DeLaSalle 7-3. The Conference Season ended with a 12-7 loss to Mendel. In 13 conference games the Rams only won 4.

After a disappointing conference season, the baseball Rams were looking forward to the State Tournament. In

The eyes of Yaro Dachniwskyj display great concentration.

Gordon's 1980 tennis season can truly be called a success story. Most of the team's success can be attributed to its new head coach, Mr. Fred Galluzzo. Coach Galluzzo was decidedly going to make his a winning team. He began practice at McFetridge after Christmas and, as the weather improved, moved it outdoors to Horner Park. He began drills and practice matches and, as the season progressed, felt that we were ready.

Our first match paired us against Evanston. We went out with confidence, but as the day's events soon proved, we weren't quite ready. All matches went to Evanston, including Chris Visconti's grueling three setter which ended the day.

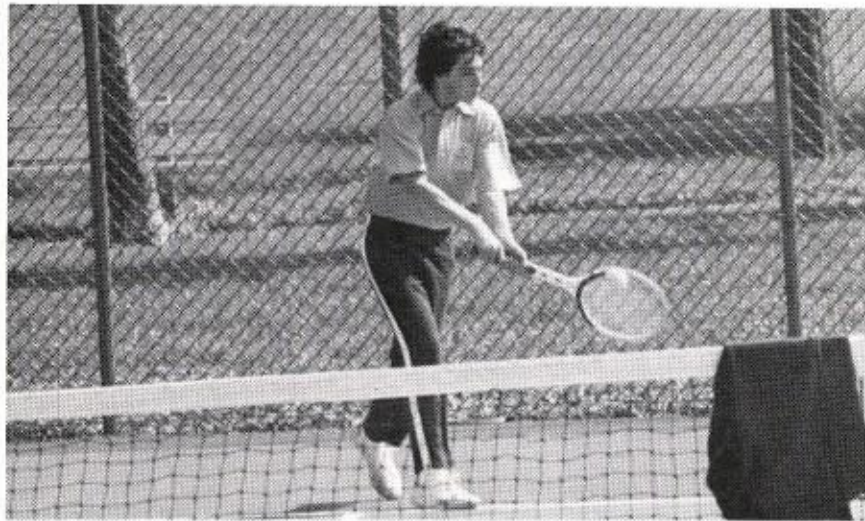

Our next opponent was Oak Park-River Forest. Though we played better, the match was once again lost. In a conversation during the match, the opposing coach told Coach Galluzzo that he saw a wealth of talent on our team. This revived the winning attitude Coach Galluzzo had held and gave the team new confidence. This confidence persevered and helped lead us to an impressive 9-2 record in Catholic League play, including an outstanding victory over Loyola. Additionally, Gordon placed third out of a field of ten at the Catholic League (North-sectional) Tournament.

The factor which aided our winning record in perhaps the greatest sense was the players themselves. This year's Coach's Award was presented to John O'Connor and Kevin Ulbert, Catholic League first doubles champions. These two were the strength and life of the team. Two exceptional players, their skill in doubles provided the team with dependable victories.

Chris Visconti, most valuable player three years in a row, was undoubtedly our most talented player. Chris' commanding use of topspin enabled him to attain his tremendous 16-4 record as first singles.

Yaro Dachniwskyj, 7 and 7 this season, made some big improvements this year in moving up to second singles.

No. 1 Singles Chris Visconti goes a long way to keep this ball in play.

The #1 Doubles Catholic League Champions team of John O'Connor and Kevin Ulbert at a critical point in a match.

In third position was Arnold Martinez, a freshman whose talent won him much success. Arnold, 8-5 for the season, proved to be a valuable asset to the team.

Our second doubles team of Mike Ulbert and Roger Basa proved to be a wise pairing as their respective 12-4 and 11-6 records well attest. Had it not been for Mike's lightning fast serve and Roger's shot making ability, the team might have lost a few close matches.

The Frosh-Soph team, under returning coach Fr. John Nowak, shared equally in the year's success. This year's team placed third in the Catholic League and was 4 and 1 in Catholic League play. Again, the most important factor in the teams success was its members.

In the first singles position, a talented, hard-working freshman was introduced in Steve Porter. Steve ended his season with a 5-3 record and will undoubtedly be out to improve that record in years to come. "Hollywood", a nick-name Steve aquired this past season, is easily recognized on court by his flamboyant red sweatsuit and sunglasses.

John Pfeiffer and Joe Farrell, each 4 and 2 for the season, returned this year as second and third singles, respectively.

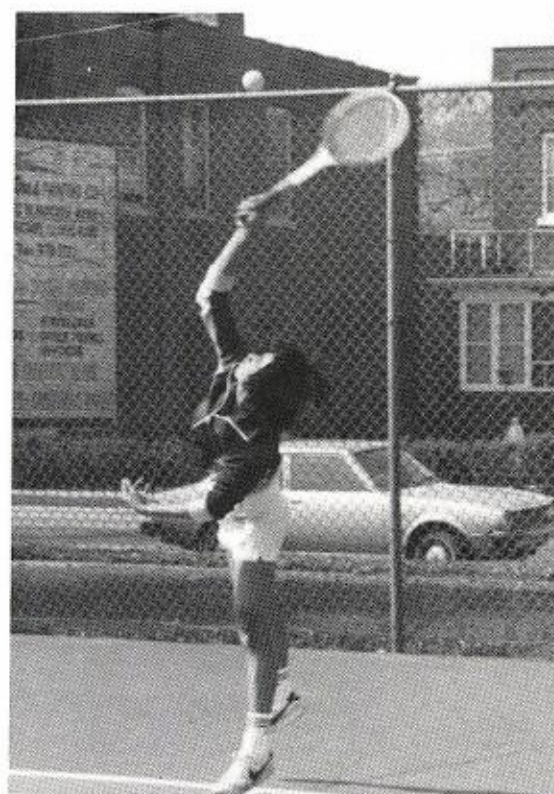

Our first doubles team of John Rubrich and Sulatti Gamnerdsiri, two new members who were relatively inexperienced in the game, soon found that they too could be successful. With constructive instruction on the parts of coaches Galluzzo and Nowak, these two began to play well together and ended the season with a 4-3 record.

This year's team was second only to our football and fencing teams when it comes to winning, thus making tennis Gordon's most successful spring sport.

The track season really started at different times for the different fields of competition. The distance men had been preparing for the track season ever since the Cross-Country season ended. They started this early because they were striving to join the elite five-hundred mile club. The pole-vaulters began their season during basketball. The only other group that started early were the shot-putters. They began weight training with Coach Quanstum long before the season had started. Finally, word got around that the sprinters would be starting practice. Once the sprinters began, so did the high-jumpers. Soon we had the whole team practicing with the exception of the freshmen.

Once we got our act together, the entire team began to warm up in the eight hundreds and on the balconies. The coaches kept stressing the fact that we were a team and soon all the guys became one team working together. Now the 1981 track team was really on its way.

Naturally with all the new freshman, we had to get more talent than in any previous year, and we did. The freshman gave the Sophomores a solid foundation upon which to lean during the season, and this, in turn, led to a solid Frosh-Soph team.

After the pre-season warmups had ended, the specific groups separated for their individual workouts. The sprinters ran the halls, as did the distance men. The weight men worked out in the weight room and the high-jumpers and vaulters alternated with Coach Schalek. The indoor season ended with a feeling of success. The two mile relay team came in first at every meet! Paul Peters won three first place finishings in the one and two mile runs and placed excellently in the rest of our meets. Andy Peterson and Jerry Penkala took a few first places in the half mile run. With these records in mind, we ran to the limits at the Indoor Catholic League and placed fifth!

Once outdoor season came around, the track team began to rely on the field events for support. The runners still took their first places as in the indoor season; but in the pole-vault, shot-put, and discuss points and records soared. Tom Fiala, Ray Wildeboer, and Chris Juhas began giving us points in the shot-put, Ray and Bob Nole racked up the points in the discuss throw, and Paul Franklin, Dave Zander, and Kevin Ciecko pulled off a couple first place wins in the pole-vault. In fact, Paul Franklin broke the Frosh-Soph and Varsity records with a vault of thirteen feet. Even the hurdlers began supplying us with extra points.

The output of points just wasn't quite good enough though, and without a large Varsity squad, they only pulled off a ninth place finish in the Catholic League. The Gordon spirit rambled on through the Districts with the pole-vaulters and two mile relay team competing. Both did great as the two mile relay team qualified for the state finals and the pole-vaulters won fourth and sixth place finishings.

Our spirit ran with us at the state finals with the two mile relay team of

Jerry Penkala, Andy Peterson, Paul Peters, and Tom Taylor.

Our spirit dwindled as the team finished unsuccessfully. Overall, however, the Varsity did very well considering the little membership it possessed. The members we did have made it to the finals in the Catholic League, Districts, and State Championships. The future looks promising as only two members of the two mile relay team will be graduating. All of the pole-vaulters will be returning and a large number of talented sophomores will be moving up to Varsity. In closing, none of the teams success would have been possible without the assistance of Coaches Martorano, Schalek, Lazzara, and Quanstrum, Fr. Mitrenga, and the entire student body.

Fourth placed district two-mile-relay-champs and state qualifiers, Jerry Penkala, Paul Peters, Andy Peterson, and Tom Taylor, show what they're made of.

Junior Leroy Foster sprints out of the blocks as fast as he can to try and gain a lead over tough competition at Catholic League.

Sophomore Chris Juhas uses every muscle in his body to throw the shot put.

Sophomore Paul Franklin, record holder of both Frosh-Soph and Varsity pole vaulting records, vaults to a height of twelve feet to place fourth in districts.

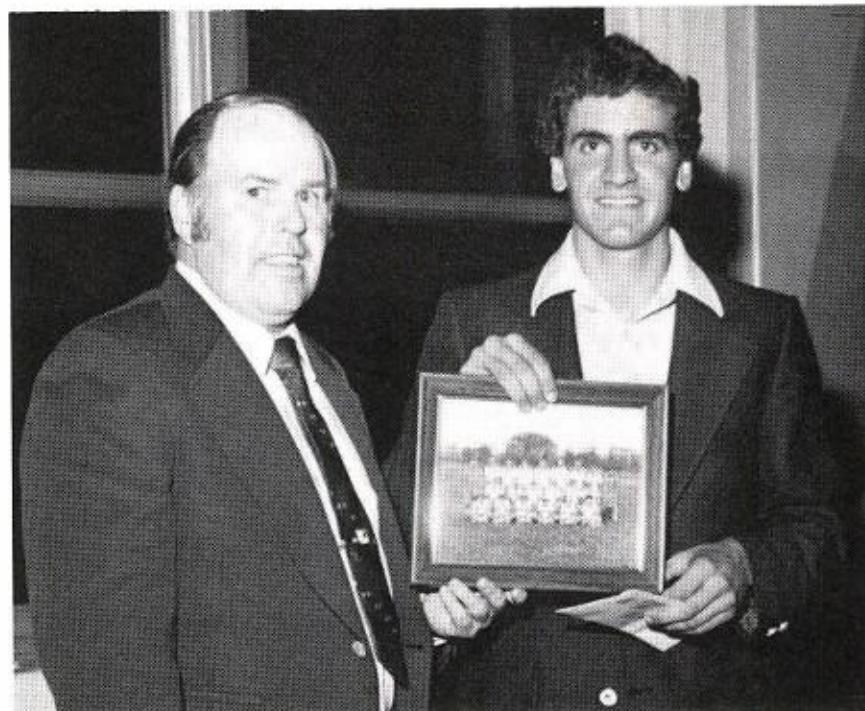

SPRING ATHLETIC BANQUET

MAY 29, 1981

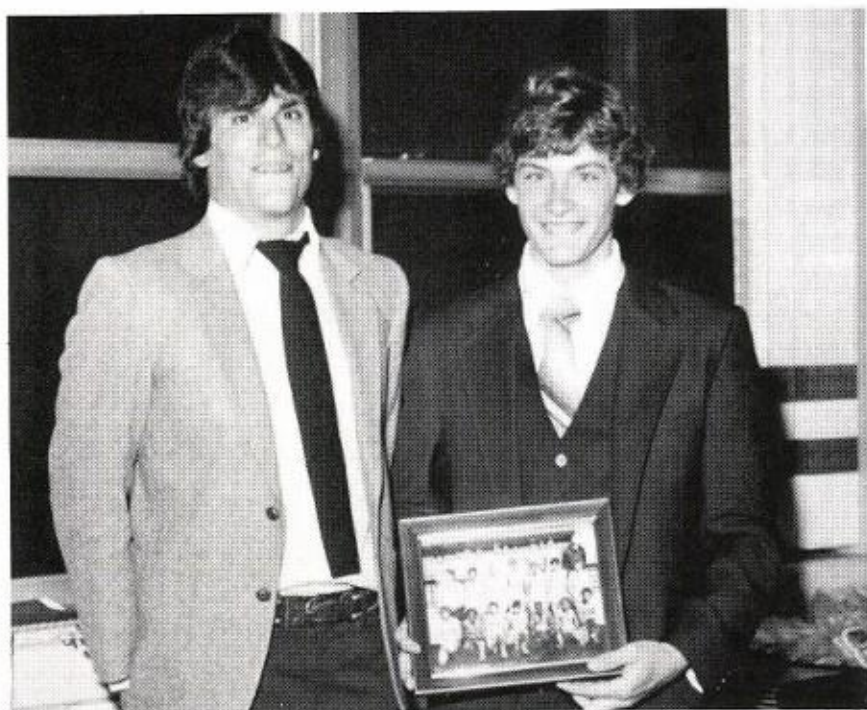

The Spring Athletic Banquet was held in May in honor of the Baseball, Track and Tennis teams. The banquet was brought to order by toastmaster Rev. Edwin Dubel, and dinner was then served.

The first team honored was the Tennis team. Awards were given out by Head Coach Mr. Fred Galluzzo. Next was Track and Field. Head Coach Mike Martorano took over the podium and gave out his awards. Last of all, Baseball was honored. Head Baseball Coach Mr. Robert Slingerland gave his special awards and highlighted some of the baseball members accomplishments.

The presentation of the crosses to the Senior's mothers by Fr. Mitrenga followed. The banquet was then called to a close by Rev. Donald Zinn who read a poem written by a member of the Mother's Club.

Tom Vanoni proudly presents the Most Valuable Baseball Player Award, awarded to Ron by Coach Slingerland.

Hard work and dedication pays off when Senior, Jerry Penkala, is awarded the Coaches Award in Track by Coach Peter Lazzara.

Head Track Coach, Mike Mortorano, stands side by side with the receipiant of the Most Valuable Track Player Award, Senior Paul Peters.

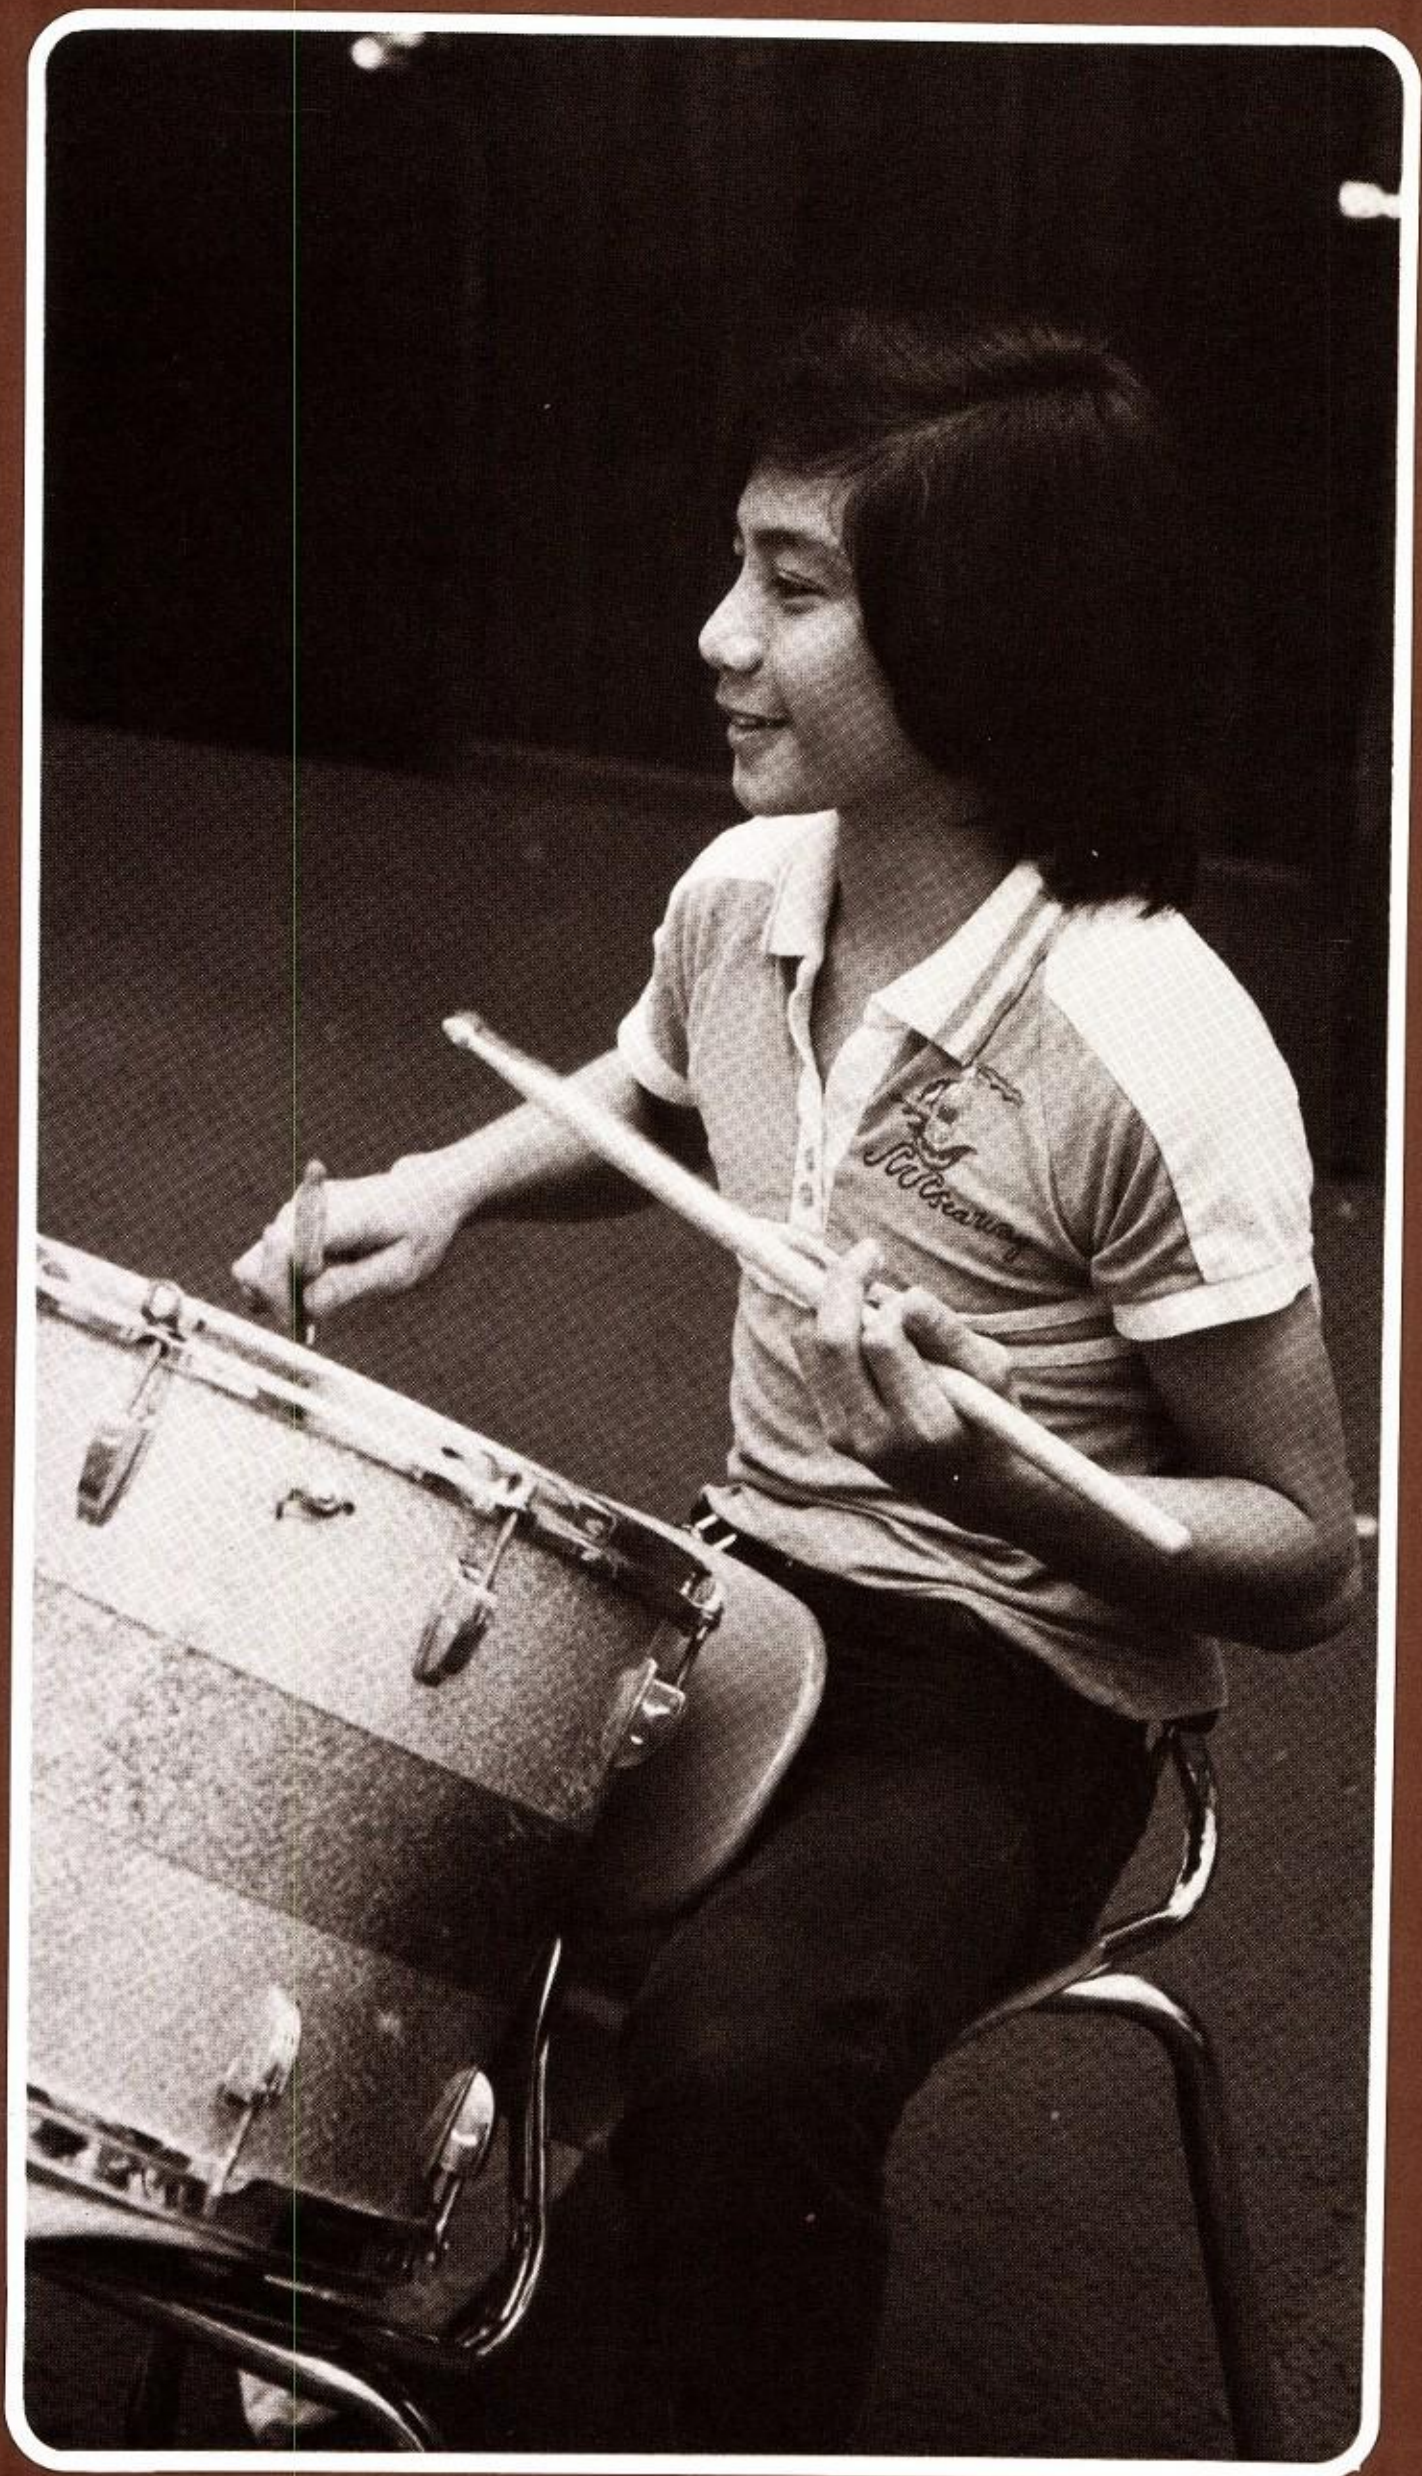

The proud owner of the Coaches Award for baseball, Senior Joe Kinahan, gives his coach, Robert Kaiser a thank-you and a hand shake.

Head Tennis Coach, Fred Galluzzo, passes with the overjoyed Junior, Chris Visconti, who has won the Most Valuable Player Award three years in a row now.

INTRAMURALS

Senior homeroom champs Mr. Derendal's Homeroom 402 took the award four years in row.

Once again, the intramural program was a success. It not only induced a competitive spirit among homerooms, but gave those students with limited free time an opportunity to use their specific talents without the obligation of a team. Had it not been for the intramural program, students with athletic ability would most probably have gone unnoticed. Returning this year as intramural director of activities was Coach Casey Koslik. Coach Koslik's main duty was the scheduling and carrying out of the various intramural events.

Throughout the year, intramural events such as the rope climb, pull-up contest, 100 yard dash, sit-up contest, and cross-country race were taking place. In addition, competition in wrestling, basketball, floor hockey, ping-pong, checkers, and the high jump were held further into the year. The annual Sports Night was held in conclusion to the year's intramural events. The night's activities consisted of boxing, wrestling, basketball, and the Hot Shot competition.

The winning homerooms were those which sent the most participants and which had the majority of event champions. The homerooms gained points for participants per capita in addition to points given to the winners of various intramural events. Participation was encouraged, as always, by the homeroom teachers whose success was noted by the large turnouts which characterized most events. Indeed this year's intramural program was a success in that it provided a sense of competition and athletic participation to its members. Hopefully we can look forward to the same memorable events as were enjoyed this year.

Freshman homeroom champs The Freshmen in 114 were encouraged by their enthusiastic leader Mr. Bob Miller.

Physical Fitness Team

This year the Physical Fitness Team was disappointed. The Marine Corps failed to notify them that there would be no competitions at the end of the year—a combination of budget cuts and lack of communication.

Dedicated to keeping the strong record Gordon Teams had accumulated the new Coach Mr. John Masciola had the members working out every day at 7:15.

The team members were saddened that they could not compete, but they were happy that they could keep themselves in excellent condition.

The Executive Advisory Board consists of a group of dedicated men and women from the business and professional community who meet on a quarterly basis to assist the administration in formulating plans and policies for Gordon. The expertise which they bring from their various fields of work gives the members if the administration an objective, informed, and balanced view of their goals and plans. At each meeting, some program or facet of school life is presented to the group for their reactions and opinions.

staff

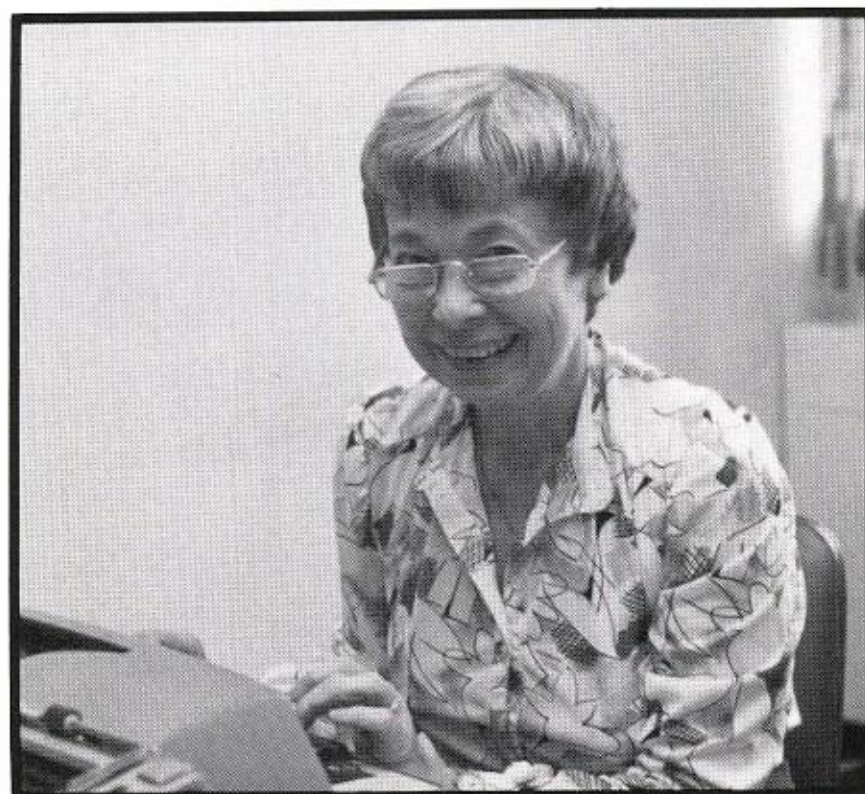

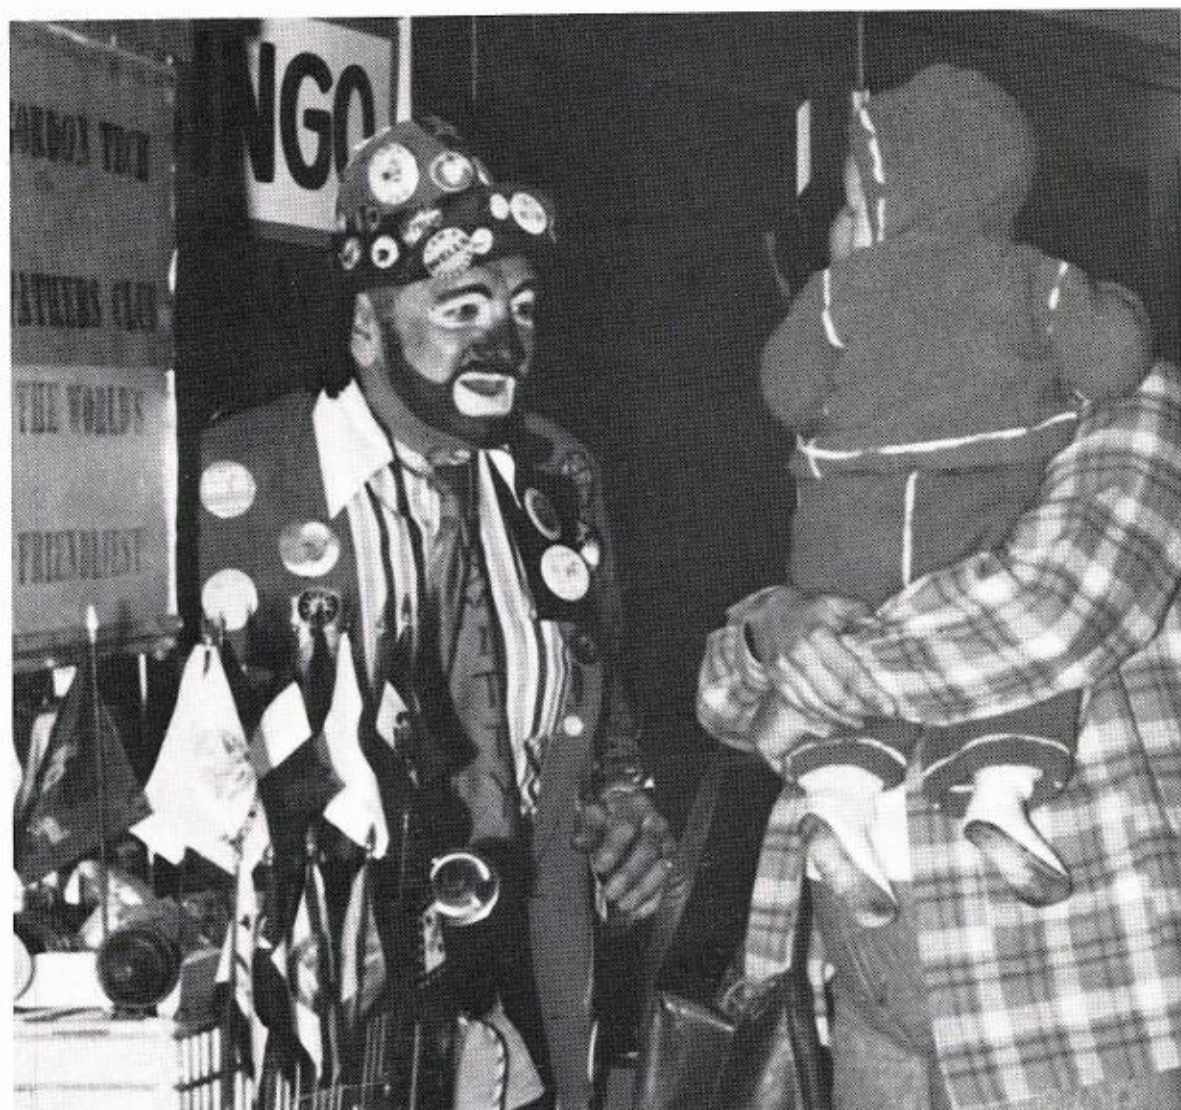

Volunteers who have contributed 100 hours or more of service were presented with gold pins by the principal. Seated: Mrs. Emily Wynn (Athletic Director's Office), Madeline Macklin and Annamae Hitchens (Library). Standing: Regina Ochrowicz (Volunteer Coordinator and Mothers Club), Ted Sadowski (Bookstore), George Flemming and Emmett Lamb (Cafeteria), Fr. Mitrenga. Missing: Harry Mindak (Business Office) and Lillian Herbold (Library).

Harry Mindak volunteers on a regular basis in the school Business Office.

Ann Van Skike substitutes for the principal's secretary occassionally during the year.

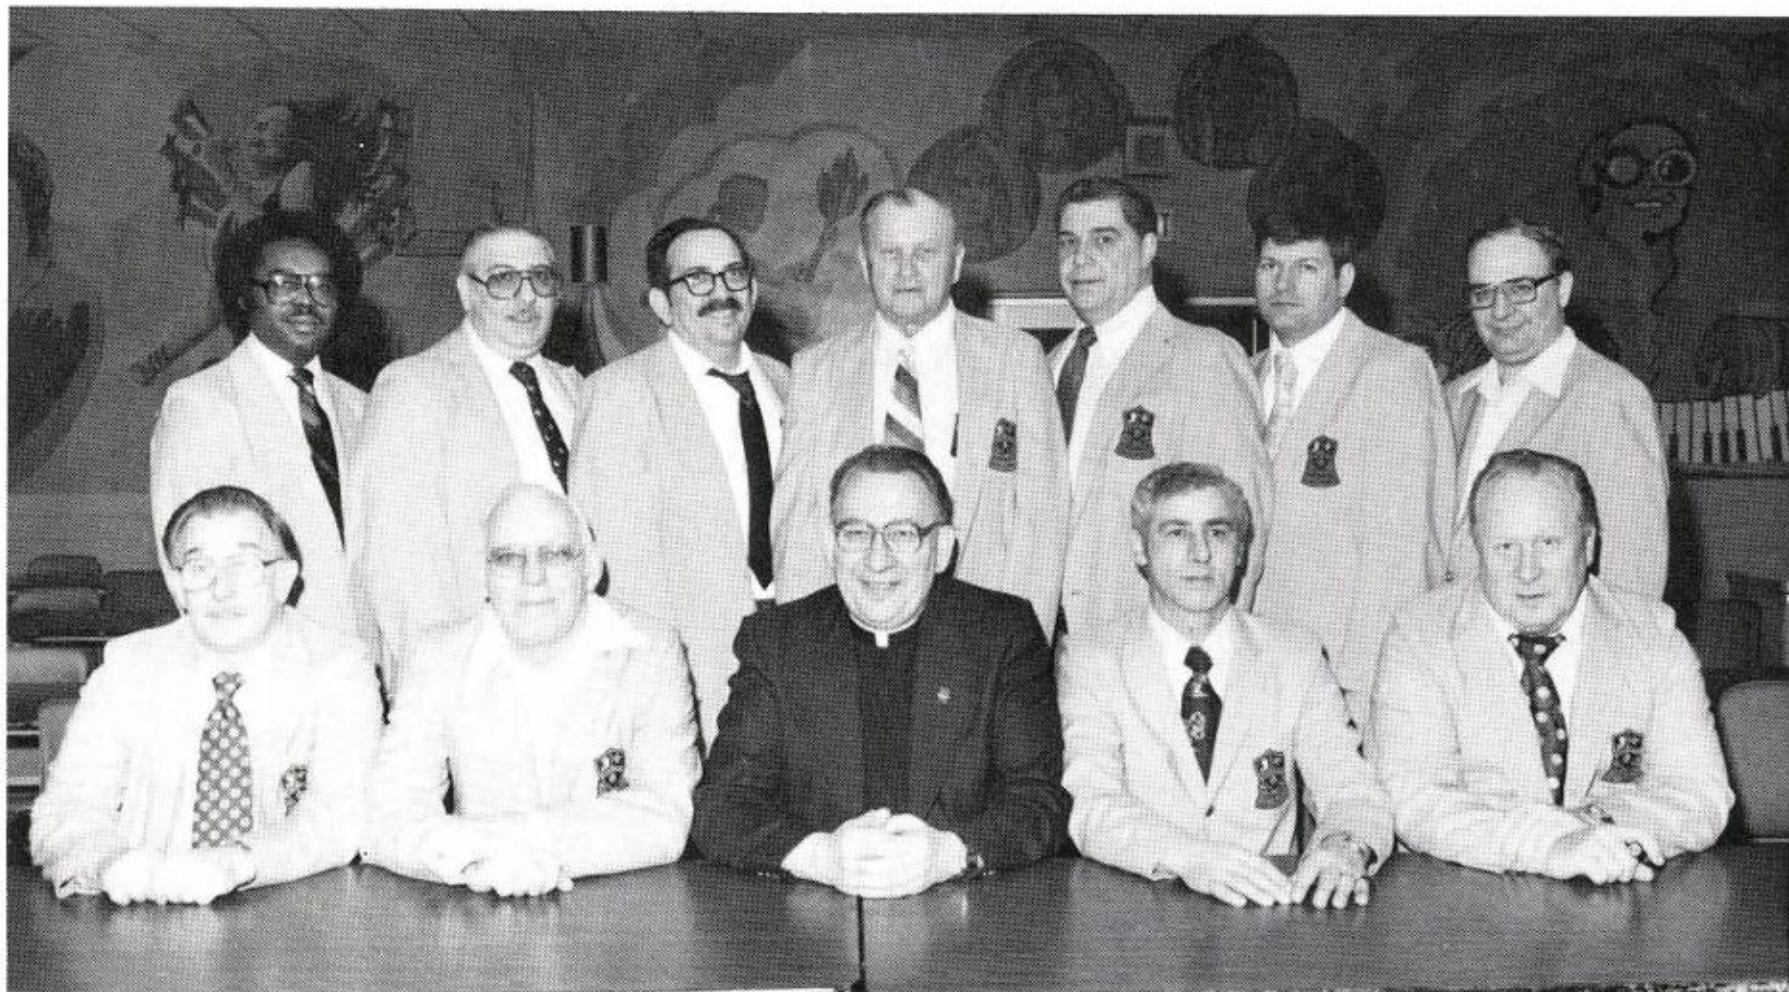

PARENTS AND FUND RAISING

Fathers Club

Fathers Club
Board

Seated: Bob Dillman, Mario Cortez, Rev. Henry Blaski C.R., Vic Palmsiano, Verne Johnson.
Standing: Bob Rucker, Ned Mineo, Mario LaQuaglia, George Flemming, Joe Menick, Rick Runnels, Ed Gobat.

Fathers Club members spend a quiet evening discussing plans for the Donkey Basketball Game.

The Club provides members with an opportunity to socialize while at the same time being of service to the school.

Mr. Graziano Marcheschi speaks to the members to ask their support for the school production of Guys and Dolls.

Beer and sandwiches are served at most meetings of the Fathers Club.

Fr. Blaski, Chaplain and Moderator, makes a few comments to the members before they nominate and elect new officers.

Fall Festival

October 24, 25, 26 1980

Tossing ping-pong balls into fish bowls is a great challenge for this little guy.

The arcade of pin ball machines and electronic games was a popular attraction.

Mrs. Helen Stasic was a winner at the Fall Festival.

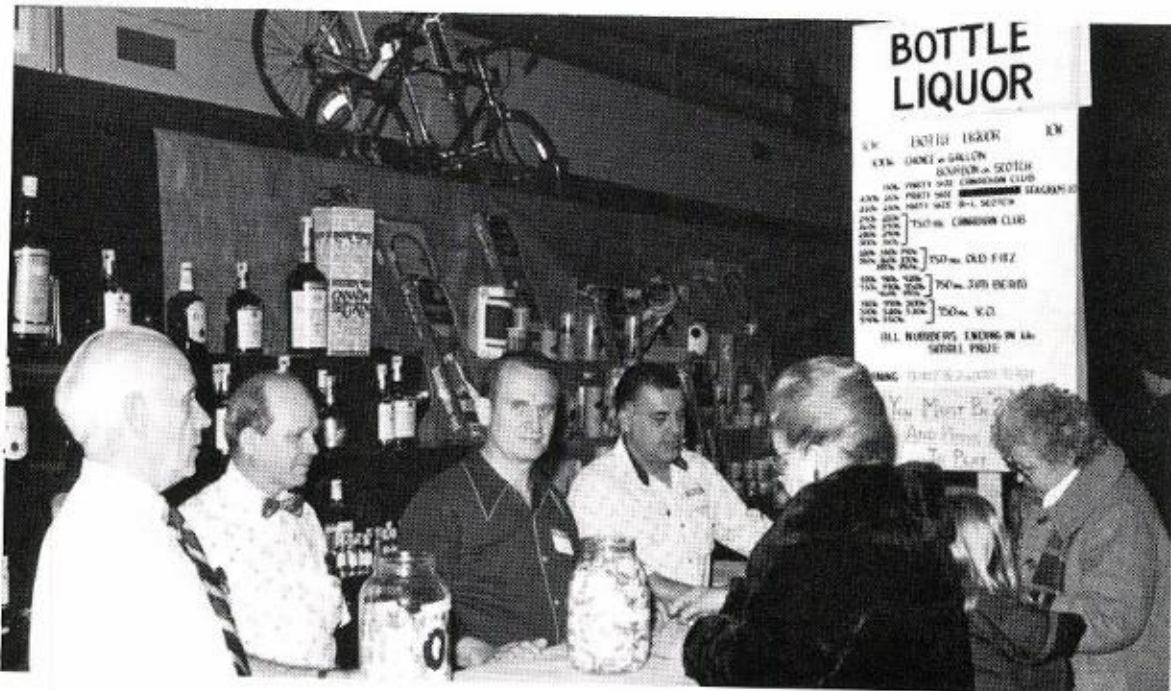

The stuffed animal booth is popular with mothers and small children.

Some people like to share information at the card tables.

Coach Jerry Jasinski has the look of a riverboat gambler about him.

A popular raffle booth is traditionally staffed by members of the Fathers Club.

Mothers Club

Mothers Club Board

This year the Mothers Club Fashion Show had an Hawaiian theme.

Fr. Don Zinn, Chaplain and Moderator of the Mothers Club, got a lot of laughs when he dragged himself down the runway in this fur coat.

The St. Joseph's Table is a tradition with the members of the Gordon Tech Mothers Club.

The annual event is a family affair.

Fr. Zinn poses with the ladies who planned, coordinated, and organized the St. Joseph's Table.

A Mothers Club meeting this year had some home-grown entertainment.

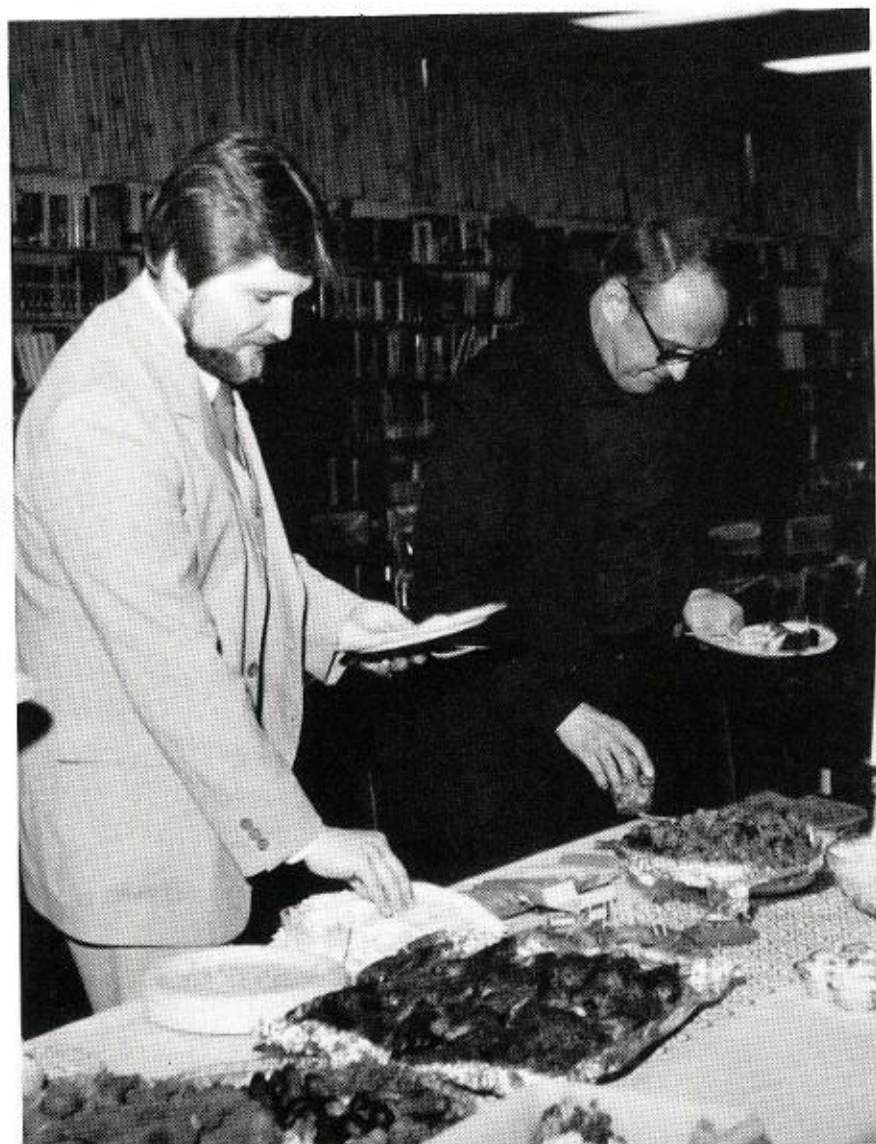

Alumni Association

Standing: Dennis Pachalski, Thomas Nelson, Mark Matz, Rev. John Nowak. Seated: John Gambill, Michael Trent, Regina Ochrowicz, Theresa Raatz.

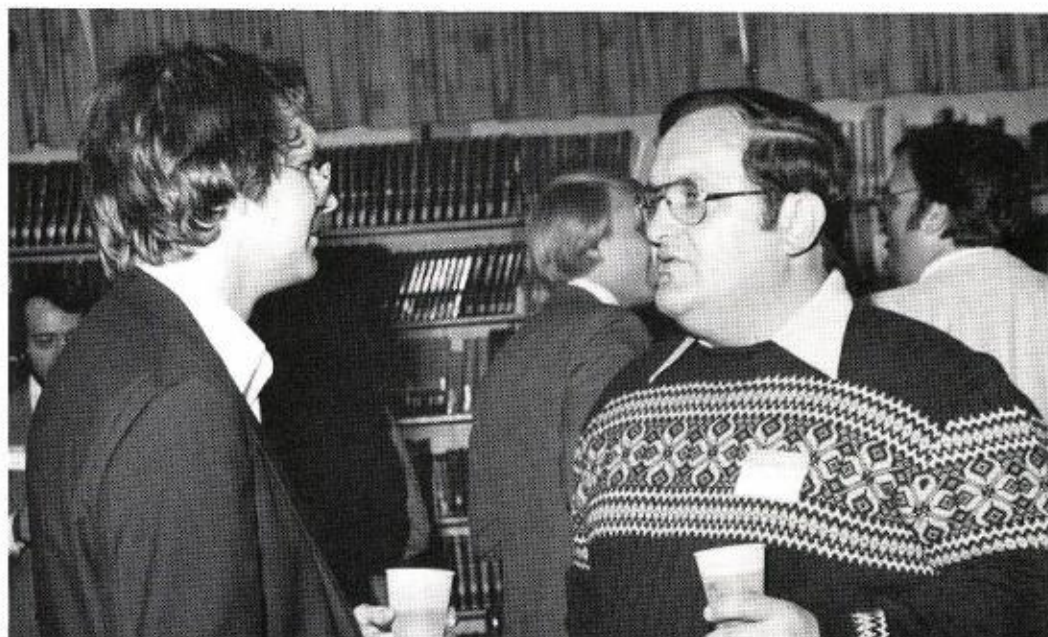

Alumni Board

Mr. Tom Neihengen and Mr. Jim Maggiore, who coordinated the Alumni Speakers Program, dine with members of the group.

Fr. Mitrenga and an alumnus sample the hors d'oeuvres at a social function for the Alumni Speakers.

Coach Tom Winiecki talks over old times.

Fr. John Nowak, the Chaplain of the Alumni Association, and Mr. Jim Maggiore discuss future plans with an alumni speaker.

Mr. Maggiore and Fr. Mitrenga pose with some of the alumni who gave their time to speak to Gordon students on their careers, their academic training, and what the future holds for students now in high school.

Resurrectionist Awards Dinner

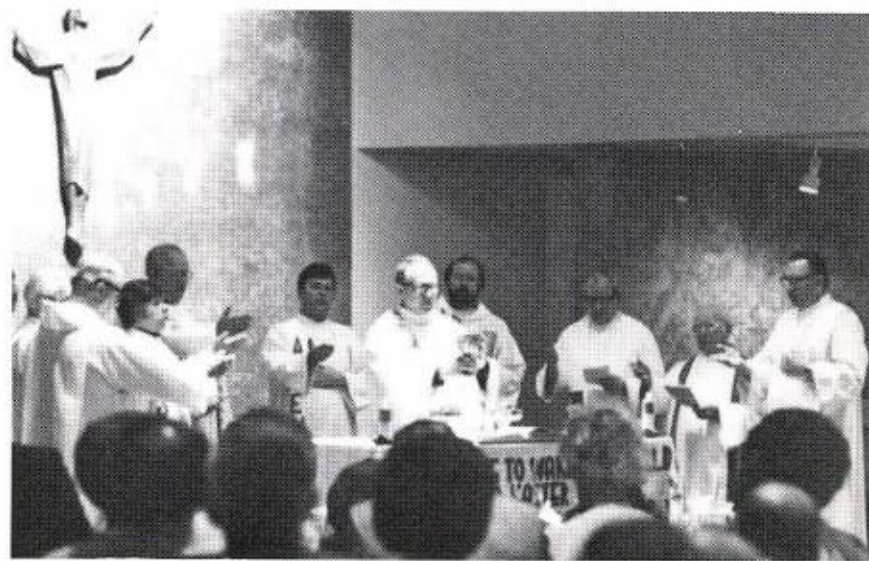

May 2, 1981

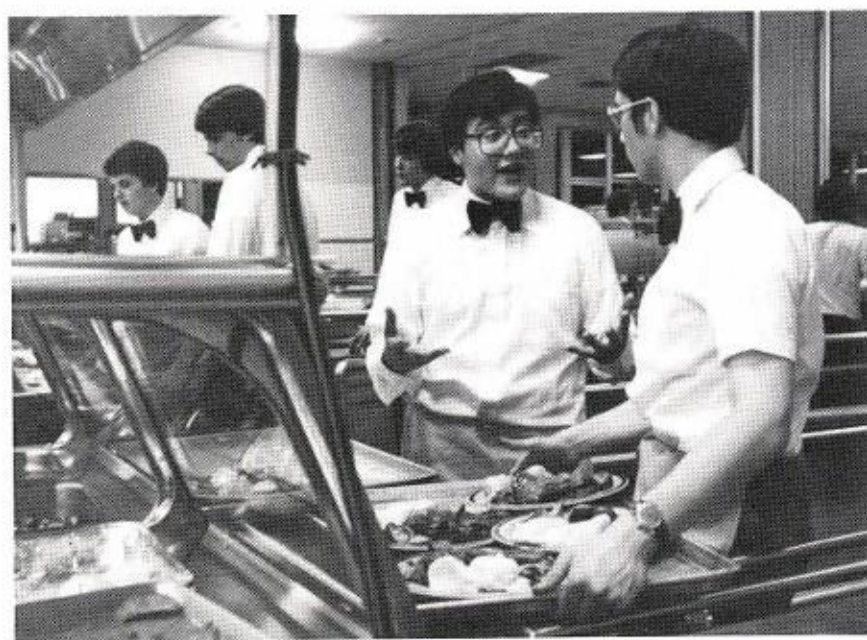

This year's Resurrectionist Award recipients were: Ginny West, Ann Trucina, Martha Lou Riley, and Annamae Hitchens.

Mrs. Riley is escorted to Fr. Mitrenga by Fr. Mel Rybarczyk to receive her award.

Fr. Mitrenga concelebrated the liturgy of thanksgiving on this special occasion.

National Honor Society waiters are enthusiastic about their work serving the guests.

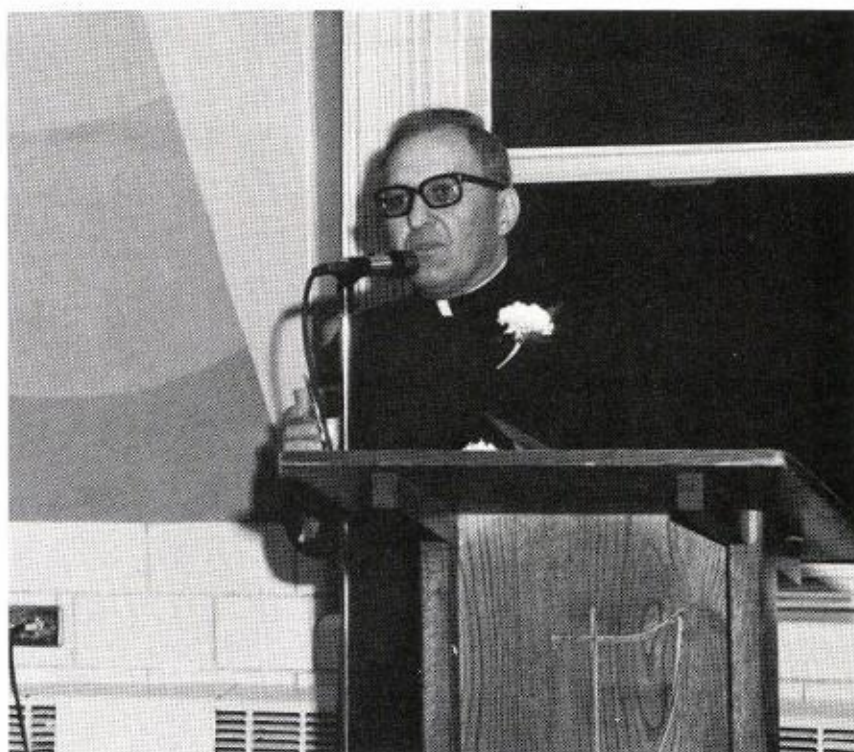

Fr. Glab is cast in a servile role as he pours champagne for the guests.

Fr. Zinn visits with Mothers Club members who were invited to attend the affair.

Fr. Joseph Przysucha offers a toast to those who have contributed to the Resurrection Fathers educational efforts.

The liturgy was the beginning and focal point of the evening.

Fr. Mitrenga circulates through the crowd.

Gordon Tech Founders

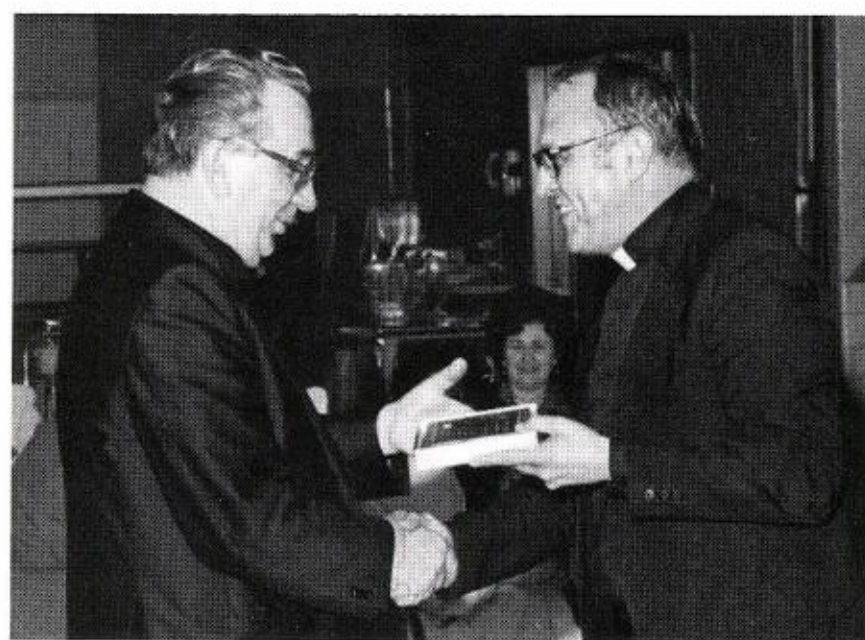

May 23, 1981

Fr. Mitrenga offers a toast to those at his table who were among the sixty recipients of Founders Plaques.

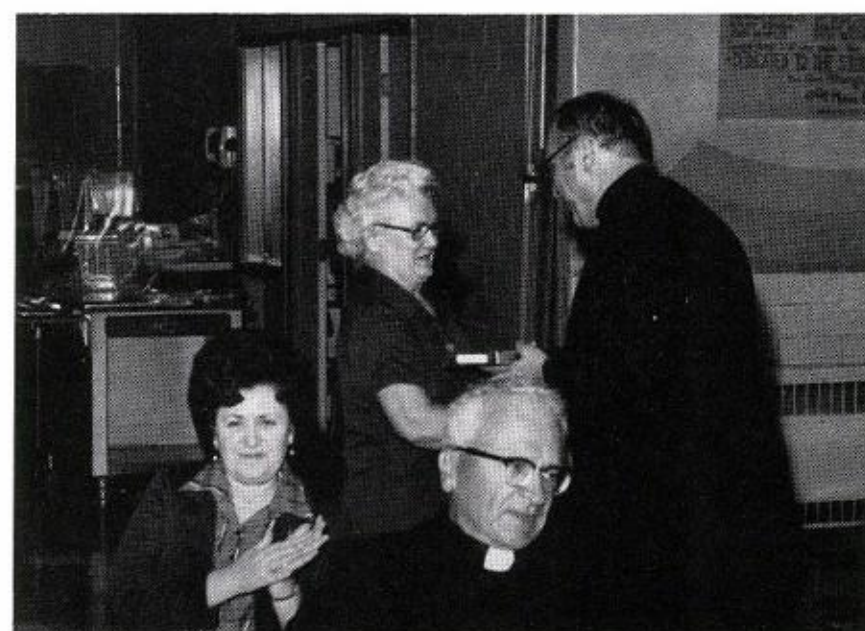

Brother Bill Hallas was one of the recipients.

Fr. Blaski, the Director of Development and Public Relations, was decorated by the principal.

Rose Haracz, the Manager of the Cafeteria Services, receives her award from Fr. Mitrenga.

Once again the members of the TECH-Log staff have taken upon themselves the selfless task of accumulating the year's history for their classmates. We realize that yearbooks are for tomorrow, and for next year, and for ten years from now. Sometimes it is hard to get excited about the work that must be done. I must express my admiration for this year's young staff and the enthusiasm they have brought to their work.

Of course, it would be impossible for us to have completed this book on our own. Ms. Kathy Kozan served as Art Consultant to the staff and gave us valuable guidance and judgments on our designs; her original artwork graces the cover of this issue of the TECH-Log.

We are indebted to the following for their untiring efforts: Mrs. Geraldine Boin, a parents club volunteer who assisted me with much of the paperwork of the yearbook and the Honors Program; Norb and Marge Dompke and their capable staff at Root Photographers; Mr. Ray Gilgenbach of the Inter-Collegiate Press for his help and advice; the coaches and moderators of activities; and the students of Gordon Tech who made this book possible by their participation in school activities.
